residence for personal use and social club dues	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Queens owns and provides a residence for the President which is located on the campus. This residence is used frequently for business purposes such as meetings, receptions and entertaining donors. The value was not treated as taxable compensation. Queens also provides the President with a membership to a country club (Myers Park Country Club). This membership is used primarily for business purposes such as meetings, receptions and entertaining donors. The value was not treated as taxable compensation. In addition, the President and the Vice President for Advancement are provided with memberships to a social club (Charlotte City Club) which are used solely for business purposes such as entertaining donors. The value was not treated as taxable compensation.
Deferred Compensation	Schedule J, Part II, Column (C)	Amounts reported as deferred compensation are the employer's match to the 403(b) plan, which is applicable to all participating employees.
determining compensation	Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	The president's compensation is determined and approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees. This committee utilizes information from the 990 returns of other benchmark institutions, compensation surveys of other private colleges and universities, and other benchmarks obtained by the members of the committee as information in the compensation determination process. These discussions are documented in the minutes and files of the Compensation Committee.
