Facts And Circumstances Test
Part II, Line 17b--The organization does not meet the public support requirements for tax year 2009. The chief constraint is that the organization, although it is more than 5 years old, was dormant for several years until recently, so it faces the same challenges generating contributions and fees as would a new organization. Additionally, economic hardships in the construction industry directly affect the Institute's largest revenue source. Management expects that the mission of the Institute will be attractive to government funders, and is actively seeking government grants (not contracts). Management is also seeking to diversify the individual donor base, such that a smaller portion of the Institute's total contributions will be from its current core donor pool.
