	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The written conflict of interest policy is regularly and consistently monitored and compliance enforced. Any duality of interest or possible conflict of interest on the part of any member of the board of directors shall be fully disclosed to the other members of the board and made a matter of record, either through an annual procedure or when the interest becomes a matter of board action. An individual is not prohibited from serving as a member of the board of directors if the member has a pecuniary interest in or derives a profit from a contract or purchase connected with the organization. However, the member shall disclose that interest or contract amount in writing to the board. The member shall abstain from voting on any matter that affects that interest or contract amount and shall not be present during the vote. The foregoing requirements shall not be considered as preventing the board member from briefly stating his/her position in the matter, nor from answering pertinent questions of other board members since his/her knowledge may be of great assistance. Any new member of the board shall be advised of this policy upon entering on the duties of his/her office. Each member of the board of directors shall be required to provide information to the other board members as to his/her outside interests, investments, outside activities and any other matters that might be considered as possible conflict of interest. The CEO enforces the conflict of interest policy.
