Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III ☒

- 1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:
 The mission of California Communications Access Foundation (CCAF) is to aid individuals with functional limitations of hearing, vision, speech, mobility, manipulation, and/or cognition by promoting access to society through communications and other means
- 2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☒ Yes ☐ No
 If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.
- 3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No
 If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.
- 4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 9840290 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 13752146)

Through a contract with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC), CCAF provided specialized telecommunications equipment to over 20,000 new deaf and disabled consumers through oversight of a centralized call center, which received over 164,000 calls annually. CCAF also provided specialized equipment to over 23,500 consumers in their homes or in eight Service Centers throughout California. Through its contract with the CPUC, CCAF also managed contracts with the California Relay Services vendors, who relayed 3,451,000 calls to and from deaf, hard of hearing, and speech disabled users

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 849078 including grants of $ 849078) (Revenue $ 0)

Beginning this year CCAF commenced a program to give grants to non-profit organizations for furthering CCAF's mission. CCAF's Board of Directors fully approved the granting of cash to 501(c)(3) organizations with projects in California to improve access to communications for people with disabilities and seniors. CCAF sought applications from over 500 non-profit organizations in California who developed projects improve access to communications for under-served groups through providing technology and services. CCAF's Board of Directors reviewed the applications and ultimately funded 17 organizations to implement their projects. Per the grant requirements, the Grantee submits project semi-annual reports, a final report and a self-evaluation of its performance and their record keeping. The funded organizations had all set goals at the beginning of their projects to serve a specific number of consumers, and/or set a specific number of consumers, and/or provide a specific number of assistive technology devices to consumers depending on what each of their projects required. The funded organizations provided reports and examples documenting the extent to which they achieve their goals. Also, the Board hosted a meeting for the Grantees to share projects and achievements with each other, which served as a further information resource. CCAF looks forward to offer more grants and add to this pool of information and resources throughout the state to serve people with communication needs.

GAAP provides accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by CCAF in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. CCAF's returns for the years ended June 30, 2008, 2009 and 2010 are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three years after they are filed

Part I.2 - monitoring the use of grant funds: The grant is paid in 3 installments. First one (50%) is paid after receiving the signed Grant Agreement, which specifies all terms and conditions regarding project performance and future payments. Second one (35%) requires a 6 month report on how the project is progressing with the use of funding and its review being accepted.

The final third one (15%) is paid after receiving a final detail report describing results, a self-evaluation of its performance, a budget-to-actual expense and completed review. Additionally,

CCAF invites funded projects to attend an in-person presentation/update to the Board of Directors and all other grantees. CCAF maintains contact with the funded projects throughout the funded period through regular emails, phone calls and on-site visits to projects when such can be arranged. The content collected is very informative and is maintained retention.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B 11a - The Controller prepares Form 990 and provides a draft to the President and full Board for a detailed review. Board members provide comments and questions. The final Form 990 is sent to the full Board before filing. In addition a copy of the Audited Financial Statements was provided to the Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B 12c - CCAF's Conflict of Interest and Disclosure Policy is based on the non-allowed activities and disclosures required in the Form 770, Statement of Economic Interests, which is completed by all directors, officers, and managers annually. All directors, officers, and managers are required to refrain from activities with any program vendors or contractors which would create a real or perceived conflict of interest and to annually disclose any relationships, financial or other, with any program or vendors which could influence the employee's work activities. The disclosure and reporting forms are reviewed by the CEO and provided to the State of California and copies of all forms are maintained by the organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B 15A and b - CCAF uses an independent compensation firm to set the compensation for all employees, including all management. The independent compensation firm reviews current job descriptions and compares them to similar positions in similar California-based organizations to determine a market-based compensation range. The market-based compensation range, including total remuneration, for the CEO and executive management positions is presented to the Board of Directors and independent directors to determine the officer's compensation levels and authorize any changes. The compensation benchmarking is performed every 3 to 5 years for the entire organization and more frequently for selected positions as necessary.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C 19 - The Organization makes its Form 990 available to the public upon request.

Form 990, Part III.2, Answered Yes and it is described in Part III 4b regarding a CCAF usage of communications access funds
