Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Funds for rent assistance and security deposits came from an HPRP grant, an Emergency Food and Shelter grant, and private grants and donations.

Funds for utility assistance came from an HPRP grant and private grants and donations.

Funds for the other things listed above came from private grants and donations.

For government grants, we followed the guidelines of the grant to determine eligibility for assistance. For non-government funds, we based our decisions on need, as demonstrated by eviction notices, utility disconnect notices, prescriptions, contracts from funeral homes, etc. We did our best to insure that those we helped were in real financial need.

Staff members are generally also members of the board of directors. They are not paid for their involvement in the board of directors; they are paid for their work as staff members of the organization. Hope House is a small organization that works primarily with low and very low income people. We agree to keep our salaries relatively low, and we try to keep staff incomes relatively equal (full time folk have similar salaries; educational attainment, level of responsibility, and years of experience do not translate into significantly higher pay).

Part III, line 4d, other program services:

Affordable rental - the apartments once used for family transitional housing are now rented at below FMR rates to low income households that cannot afford regular rents and who do not have Section 8 vouchers or other subsidies. Seven units are rented and one unit is provided to homeless people rent free for short periods of time. So far, the effort has cost more than it has taken in. Our hope is to break even.

Poverty and Justice Workshops - on request, we provide workshops on poverty and justice issues to college, high school, church, and civic groups. This educational effort helps the larger, more affluent community better understand the blight of poor people and the structural injustices that exist in our society. Fees for these workshops are negotiated with each participating group.

Part VI, Section A, line 2 - two of our board members are related - mother and daughter. As mentioned elsewhere, our staff and board is largely co-extensive. The mother joined the Hope House prior to Katrina as a part-time supervisor in the recreation program. The daughter joined later as a housing case manager. There was no pressure by the mother to hire the daughter.

Part VI, Section B, line 8b - All work of the board of directors has been done as a committee of the whole.

Part VI, Section B, line 11 - Board members are provided copies of the 990 forms; the executive director leads the board through different parts of the form, board members ask questions, make comments, etc.

Part VI, Section B, line 19 - Anyone who asks to see corporate documents is provided the opportunity to come in and view them. Such documents are copied for foundations and other groups that request them for funding purposes. In fact, these are the only times that anyone has ever asked to see them.

Part VII, Section A - The board of directors and staff of Hope House are largely co-extensive. This is true except for one very part-time employee. They are not paid for their work as board members; they are paid for their work as receptionists, case managers, teachers, housekeepers.
