part I question 4a		The CEO is entitled to a severance benefit. The payout of such benefit is remote as it is effective only for a termination of employment without cause. If triggered, the executive would be paid his/her base salary and an annual incentive at target and provided retirement and welfare benefits for an entitlement period. The entitlement period ranges from 18 to 36 months months depending on the executive and the length of service. No payments were made under the plan in the current year. The CFO is entitled to a severance benefit. The payout of such benefit is remote as it is effective only for a termination of employment due to reorganization of hospital departments, hospital functions or downsizing activity. If triggered, the executive would be paid her base salary and medical/dental benefits for an entitlement period. The entitlement period ranges from 6 to 12 months depending on the length of service of such executive. No payments to individuals listed in part VII, Section A were made under the plan in the current year.
Part I question 4b		FMOLHS maintains four separate, unfunded deferred compensation plans which meet the requirements of IRC Section 457(f) and IRC Section 409A. The plans provide for compensation to be deferred and paid at the earliest of one's disability, death or attainment of a specific payment date. Participation in the plans is limited to certain executives and is subject to approval of FMOLHS board of directors or a designated committee of such board. No one listed on Part VII, Section A received a payment from the plans in the current year.
