SchD_P10_S00_L02	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The university follows accounting guidance related to accounting for uncertain income tax positions. As required by the guidance, the university recognizes in its financial statements the financial effects of a tax position, if that position is more likely than not of being sustained upon examination, including resolution of any appeals or litigation processes, based upon the technical merits of the position. The university recognizes the potential accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits within general institutional expenses. Tax positions taken related to the university's tax exempt status, unrelated business activities taxable income and the deductibility of expenses and other miscellaneous tax positions have been reviewed and management is of the opinion that material positions taken by the university would more likely than not be sustained by examination. Accordingly, the university has not recorded an income tax liability for uncertain tax positions.

SchJ_P01_S00_L04	Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	George E. Martin. The University established a non-qualified deferred compensation plan under IRS section 457F for the purpose of providing a retirement benefit for the university president, George E. Martin. Under the terms of the plan, the university agreed to establish a non-vested retirement account in a financial institution of the university's selection in the name of the university on behalf of the president, make an annual contribution to the retirement account during the term of the plan, invest the account balance and distribute the account balance to the president in accordance with the occurrence of specific events. The president has no rights to or interest in the retirement account prior to the date the account becomes payable to the president under the terms and conditions set for in the plan. The president's right to the retirement benefits is non-vested and forfeitable prior to the payment date. The retirement account is the property of the university at all times prior to the payment date. The president will become 100 percent vested in and entitled to payment of the retirement account at his normal retirement date, upon termination for disability or death, other than cause and voluntary cause for good reason as defined. The president forfeits all interest in the retirement account in the event of termination for cause or voluntary termination for other than good reason as defined.

F990_P06_S0B_L12c	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	St Edward's University's Conflict of Interest Policy is applicable to all members of the university's Board of Trustees and Officers. A conflict is deemed to exist in the event that a Trustee, Officer or family member of either is affiliated with an organization that may transact business with the university. The policy defines "Trustee", "Officer", "family members" and "affiliation". Disclosure of any/all of these types of relationships or the appearance of such relationships is required to be made annually by September or as soon as a potential conflict arises. These disclosures are made in writing on the St Edward's Conflict of Interest form and submitted to the Assistant to the President for Institutional Relations for trustees and to the Assistant to the President for Strategic Planning for university officers. After collecting the Conflict of Interest forms, the assistants provide the President and Chair of the Board with a report stating whether or not there are any conflicts. If any potential conflicts are disclosed, the appropriate assistant is to notify university's legal counsel. Counsel will in turn determine if an actual conflict exists. If a conflict is determined to exist with a trustee the matter is reported to the university President and Board Chair. If a conflict is determined to exist with a university officer, the matter is reported to the university President. In either case, the individual(s) receiving the report must take all appropriate action.
