Process for Determining Compensation	Part VI, Section B, Question 15 a & b	During fiscal year 2011, RMI retained a Certified Compensation Professional to conduct a detailed analysis of all current positions. This analysis utilized "World At Work" best practices to determine market prices for the roles that currently exist within RMI and establish a grade table. The results of this work enable RMI leadership to ensure appropriate compensation levels for current roles as well as new or restructured jobs in the organization. In order to maintain the integrity of this table, members of the leadership team have been educated on the philosophy behind and use of the compensation study results. Further, processes for appropriately "pricing" new roles are being established to ensure future compliance. In 2011, the organization engaged an outside executive compensation firm to review executive compensation and provide an intermediate sanctions letter.
