It is then reviewed by the Audit Committee of the board of trustees at its regular semi-annual meeting held in March each year. They receive an electronic copy of the return and all attachments prior to the meeting and then discuss any questions they have at the meeting. When all questions have been answered to their satisfaction, all other trustees receive an electronic copy of the return before it is electronically filed with the IRS. If for some reason, it is not available to be approved before the March meeting, the members of the audit committee direct any questions they have to the Controller and/or CFO individually via email or telephone. The same procedure will then be followed before the return is filed.
