Changes in Program Services	Form 990, Part III, line 3	As part of a strategic re-alignment back to AHCH's basic primary care with integrated behavioral health mission, and because of significant budget shortfall between 10-13% of its operating budget in previous years, AHCH closed its PsychoSocial Rehab program and Tierra del Sol, its women's residential treatment program, on October 1, 2010. Additionally, Casa Los Arboles and Villa de Paz, two other residential recovery programs, were closed on December 31, 2010. During the past few years, AHCH has experienced funding cuts from a variety of state, local, and private sources. AHCH felt that to continue the programs would have required a significant investment that would draw resources away from its core services and would have jeopardized the financial sustainability of the organization.
