box rental and office supplies (paper, envelopes, name tags, etc).

Part III - Line 31 - Other program services

The remainder of the program services were used for:

- School day projects - funding for educational programs at the school (professional theater performance; environmental education), and supplies (cork boards to display student work, digital projector, auditorium acoustical improvements, etc).
- Wellness committee projects - purchase of fitness equipment for use by PE teacher.
- Outreach to increase family engagement with the school - Harvest Festival, Kiddie Cabaret, "Rock-N-Rollment," events to build relationships among families and school staff, in order to support student education.
- Teacher/Staff support - purchase of office equipment; teacher/staff appreciation events; expenses for volunteer day to prepare building for school year after extensive renovations.
- Aftercare support - provide funding for enrichment activities to be made available to all students enrolled in the after care program provided by DC Public School System for John Tyler Elementary students (Dance 4 Peace; environmental education Salad Garden Project); and funds to make extra cost programming arranged for by after care director accessible to more low income students.
- Funding for 5th grade graduation ceremonies.
- Uniform bank - support school uniform policy and student well being by making a supply of uniforms available.
- Outreach and communication - newsletter, posters to promote events, providing supplies for school open house events.
