We are a community of learners with a long and honored tradition of caring deeply about students and their education. Students are challenged to experiment with ideas, raise questions, critically examine alternatives, and make informed decisions. We encourage students to accept responsibility for their own learning, to discover and pursue their passions, and to act with responsibility. Our purposes are to prepare students to lead lives of learning, accomplishment, and service, and to help them develop skills and attributes critical for success in a rapidly changing world. We do this by offering distinctive academic programs that emphasize theory and practice and encourage active, experiential, collaborative, and cross-disciplinary learning. We work to pursue excellence while promoting inclusiveness and respect for differences.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	Income tax status The College is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, accordingly, no provision for income taxes is made in the financial statements. At July 1, 2007, the College applied ASC 740, Income Taxes - Accounting for Uncertain Tax Positions, to all tax positions for which the statute of limitations remained open and determined there were no material unrecognized tax benefits as of that date. In addition, there have been no material changes in unrecognized benefits since July 1, 2007, nor was there a material effect during the current year nor is it expected that there will be a material change in the next 12 months.
Part V, Line 4	Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	The intended use of endowment funds is to provide scholarships to students and support the activities of the College through distribution of earnings to the operating fund in a manner consistent with donor restrictions.
Part III, Line 4	Part III, Line 4 Description of organization's collections and how it furthers its purpose	The college received donations of collection and works of art. These collections further the college's exempt purpose by enhancing the educational experience for the students by using them for discussions and research in the classroom as well as for public exhibition.
Part II, Line 9	Part II, Line 9 Organization Reporting of conservation easements	Westminster College obtained the easements as part of a purchase agreement with the City of Salt Lake recorded on March 10, 2011. The easements are on approximately 1 acre of the total 4.6 acres. Because the easements were part of the purchase, we do not separately account for them in the financial statements or footnotes.

Supplemental Information
Complete this part to provide the information (see instructions) required in Part I, line 2, and any additional information.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used in Foreign Country		The costs of providing the college's various programs and other supporting services, including foreign transactions, have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services. We are not required to show foreign transactions separately for financial statement reporting purposes. The method used to account for the total expenditures by region included an evaluation of all expenses that included a cross border transaction fee and an accumulation of total expenditures related to undergraduate and graduate academic/international trips.
