DAVIDSON INSTITUTE YOUNG SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Direct Charitable Activities

Expenses

The Davidson Institute Young Scholars Program is an individualized, intensive program for profoundly intelligent children. Each month during the year, all qualified applicants (between the ages of 5 and 16) are admitted into the Davidson Young Scholars Program. There is currently no limit on the number of Young Scholars selected each year.

To be eligible for the Davidson Young Scholars Program, applicants must demonstrate extreme intellectual precocity by one or more of the following measures:

A score in the top .001% of their age-peers in a particular domain, as measured by an intelligence or achievement test specified by the Institute (e.g., the Stanford-Binet Intelligence Scale).

Evidence of precocity as illustrated by demonstrating mastery of a significant amount of content in a particular domain, far beyond the norm for the child's age group.

Other demonstration of the ability to function at the level of a talented adult in a specific academic domain.

The Davidson Institute, the Young Scholar, and his/her parents work as partners to develop and implement an individualized plan for the Young Scholar. Young Scholars and their parents may also get together yearly at one of the Davidson Institute sponsored gatherings to connect with peers, share experiences, and learn from each other. Throughout the year, Young Scholar families stay connected with online seminars, private websites, chat rooms and list servers.

As of June 30, 2011, 1,965 Young Scholars and their parents were assisted through the Young Scholars Program.

Young Scholar Program expenses as of June 30, 2011 were:

$970,507

THE DAVIDSON INSTITUTE YOUNG SCHOLARS GRANTS

Expenses

Through the Institute, Young Scholars and their parents partner with a variety of professionals to locate appropriate educational settings and materials, advocates, counselors, and mentors for the child. Parents work collaboratively with the Institute's team of family consultants to develop an individualized plan for their Young Scholar.

The individualized plan typically includes an assessment of the Young Scholar's educational, emotional, and social needs, as well as goals designed to nurture the whole child.

The Davidson Young Scholars Program provides financial assistance, in the form of grants, to help families defray some of the costs of implementing the individualized educational and talent development plan. Assistance is awarded based on financial need. Families requesting financial assistance must complete a financial assistance application and provide supporting documents such as tax returns.

During the twelve months ended June 30, 2011, the Institute awarded Grants to 159 Young Scholars.

Total Grant expenses were:

$79,394

DAVIDSON INSTITUTE FELLOWS AWARD SELECTION
and AWARD CEREMONY

Direct Charitable Activities

Expenses

The Davidson Institute Fellows Award Ceremony is a one-day event held in Washington, DC to recognize and honor young people selected as Davidson Fellows who will receive either a $10,000, $25,000 or $50,000 scholarship commitment to further the development of their talent through attendance at an accredited academic institution of learning.

The purpose of this event is to recognize the outstanding achievements of highly intelligent young people who have demonstrated the development of their talents with a significant piece of work. This award program seeks to recognize and award the truly extraordinary in recognized areas of science, technology, mathematics, literature, philosophy, and music as well as "outside the box" ideas. Each submission must be a piece of original work recognized by experts in the field as "significant" and it must have the potential to make a positive contribution to society. Each submission is evaluated on its scope and quality, level of significance and the applicant's depth of knowledge and understanding of the work and the related domain area.

Once the independent team of judges, who are professionals with expertise in the domain areas submitted, have identified a small group of finalists, each finalist is named as a Davidson Fellow and receives either a $10,000, $25,000 or $50,000 scholarship, as determined by the judges using the selection criteria. Individuals named as Davidson Fellows are then honored at an awards reception in Washington, DC. Travel and other hotel costs are paid by the Davidson Institute for Talent Development. Typically, 17 to 20 Davidson Fellows are selected each year. The Davidson Fellows Award is not a competition, but rather recognition of extraordinary achievement.

Davidson Fellows Award program expenses as of June 30, 2011 were:

$341,737

DAVIDSON ACADEMY

Direct Charitable Activities

Expenses

In furtherance of its objective to serve gifted youth, the Davidson Institute for Talent Development operates a tuition-free, public school for profoundly gifted middle and high school students. Davidson Academy is a "university school for profoundly gifted pupils" that was established pursuant to legislation enacted by the Nevada Legislature in 2005 (NRS chapter 392A). Davidson Academy is located on the campus of the University of Nevada, Reno and has an enrollment (as of Spring 2011) of 121 students. Students are admitted solely on the basis of meeting certain minimum criteria set forth in the Nevada statute. The majority of the students also participate in other programs of the Institute such as the Young Scholars program. Although designated as a public school, Davidson Academy will only receive less than one third of its operating budget from public sources (the state of Nevada).

Davidson Academy program expenses as of June 30, 2011 were:

DAVIDSON INSTITUTE THINK SUMMER INSTITUTE

Direct Charitable Activities

Expenses

The Davidson Institute THINK Summer Institute is a three-week residential summer program on the campus of the University of Nevada, Reno for 13- to 16-year-old profoundly gifted students, offering them the opportunity to access an extremely rigorous educational experience. THINK students are enrolled in university-level courses taught by University of Nevada professors and earn six transferable college credits. Participants stay in the university's newest residence hall, which is staffed by THINK program staff members 24 hours a day. Students share a room with other program participants.

The courses for the THINK Summer Institute are different every summer. Courses for year 2010/2011 included Brain Development, Public Health Biology, Computer Science, Statistics, Philosophy and Nanotechnology. All participants select two courses.

This program runs for three-weeks each July.

To be eligible for the THINK Summer Institute, applicants must be 13 to 16 years old during the program and a United States citizen or permanent U.S. resident living in the United States. Applicants must submit a qualifying score (see eligibility criteria at www.DavidsonGifted.org/THINK) on the ACT or SAT. Visit the SAT (www.collegeboard.com) or ACT (www.actstudent.org) testing websites to register. There is a $50 non-refundable application fee.

The goal is to keep tuition affordable and it is usually below the cost of comparable camps. The tuition of $3,000 covers course credits, room and board and the cost of the planned program activities. Additionally, participants are responsible for textbooks, transportation to and from the program, and pocket money. Scholarships based on financial need are available.

Think Summer Institute expenses as of June 30, 2011 were:	$265,894
Total Grant Expenses were:	$ 27,200

PART 4: Evidence of Extreme Intellectual Abilities

Please submit at least two of the following three options as evidence of intellectual precocity. At least one of the tests submitted must have been administered no more than two years prior to the application date. As we strive to serve the extreme of the gifted population, the Score Guidelines on page 6 are considered to be the minimum criteria for the Davidson Young Scholars program on both IQ and achievement testing. Test reports are reviewed in the context of a full application to determine eligibility for this program. Upon review of the application, additional testing or information may be requested in order to determine the applicant's eligibility. If you cannot access testing due to financial constraints, you may submit a portfolio of work samples in place of testing.

Please also include copies of all Individual Education Plans, if provided by the school.

OPTIONS

- ☐ IQ Testing*: A full written report for an individually administered IQ (intelligence) test from the Qualifying Tests and Score Guidelines on the next page. A full written report often includes the tester's observations, tests administered, test scores, summary and explanation of findings, and recommendations.

AND/OR

- ☐ Achievement Testing*: A score report for a talent/search college placement test from the Qualifying Tests and Score Guidelines OR a full written report for an individually administered achievement test from the Qualifying Tests and Score Guidelines on the next page. A full written report often includes the tester's observations, tests administered, test scores, summary and explanation of findings, and recommendations.

AND/OR

- ☐ Work Samples: A portfolio of at least three pieces of the applicant's work that best demonstrate his/her advanced abilities in academic areas. Independent work that is completed without the assistance of teachers or parents and is 2 to 3 grade levels above age peers is preferred. Some of the most informative samples have included intellectual activities the applicant has completed just for fun and completely on their own, such as math "doodles," creative writing, or autonomous projects. DVD/CD recordings demonstrating your child's academic abilities may also be included. In order for the portfolio items to be viewed in the context in which they were completed, please briefly describe each item, including the applicant's age and grade level at the time of completion, as well as the circumstances of the work (i.e. if it was completed independently or as part of a school project, how many times the work was revised, how and why the applicant completed this particular piece of work, etc.).

*Additional tests not listed on the Qualifying Tests and Score Guidelines, such as the Stanford-Binet Form L-M, may be submitted in addition to, but not in place of, the tests listed on the next page.

| <input type="checkbox"/> | Space Science         |                |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Other                 |                |

Please Note: Applications involving human subjects, live vertebrates or live invertebrates are not eligible. The Davidson Fellows Program will consider certain tissue-related projects, if and only if the applicant can demonstrate:

1. the materials were collected for other purposes; AND
2. the student is collaborating with a qualified lead scientist; AND
3. the lead scientist provides to the Institute documented approval from a recognized Institutional Review Board (IRB) or Scientific Review Committee (SRC).

Documentation must be submitted with the Preliminary Submission Overview Form by February 17, 2010, and will be carefully reviewed by the Davidson Institute for Talent Development, who, at its sole discretion, will subsequently determine eligibility. The Davidson Institute of Talent Development may, in its sole discretion, also require that other conditions be met before tissue-related projects will be further considered.

Component One:

Three copies of a Formal Research Report with a works cited page and an annotated bibliography formatted according to the American Psychological Association's Publication Manual or any other widely recognized style guide. Each page should be labeled in the upper right hand corner with the applicant's last name and first initial, category, title of prodigious work, and page number in the form of page x of y.

Component Two:

Three copies of a computer model or physical model.

If the submission is a computer model, three copies of a CD-ROM with specific viewing instructions and/or instructions for viewing it via the web must be submitted. Please label all CDs with your first and last name and the title of your work. If you are uncertain about the definition of a computer model, please refer to the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) at www.DavidsonGifted.org/Fellows.

OR, if the submission is a physical model, photographs and/or three copies of a descriptive video on DVD, must be submitted. Please do not submit the actual physical model. Please label all materials with your first and last name and the title of your work. If you choose to submit a video of your physical model, you may record this on the same DVD as the Attachment 4 video as long as the DVD is properly labeled. DVDs must be labeled with permanent marker only, do not affix adhesive labels to the disk itself.

All application materials must be sent in ONE package, including the completed application with all components and attachments. Do not send any of these items separately.

2010 Davidson Fellows Application for Science

Attachments to the Application

Please include the following attachments when submitting your application.

Attachments One, Two and Three should be typed, in English, on 8 ½ x 11 white paper in an 11 or 12 point, standard font and three copies should be submitted. Do not staple, bind or fold any portion. Each page should be labeled in the upper right hand corner with the applicant's last name and first initial, category, title of submission and the words Attachment One Significance Essay, Attachment Two Benefit to Society Essay, Attachment Three Process Essay - Part One and Part Two, respectively. Page numbers in the form of page x of y should also be placed in the upper right corner. Please page number each Attachment separately. All Attachments are to be completed by the applicant. The word count or length of the Attachments is up to the applicant. Failure to follow these guidelines may result in disqualification.

ATTACHMENT ONE: Significance Essay

Please submit a detailed description of your work and explain why your submission qualifies as a significant piece of work, as defined by at least one of the following criteria:

- exceptional creativity
- a new idea with high impact and/or broad implications
- an innovative solution with regional, state and/or national implications
- an important advancement that can be replicated and built upon
- an interdisciplinary discovery with the potential to effect positive change
- a prodigious performance

ATTACHMENT TWO: Benefit to Society Essay

Please explain how your work may make a positive contribution to society or has social relevance.

ATTACHMENT THREE: Process Essay

Part One Please answer the following questions

- What inspired you to pursue this work?
- How much time (hours/days/months) did it take you to complete this work?
- How did you organize the work that went into doing it?
- What difficulties did you encounter and how did you handle them?

Part Two: Please answer the following questions:

- Where was the work completed?
- Who supervised your work? (Give names, titles, addresses, e-mail, and phone numbers)
- What help have you received in doing this work?
List who helped you and what assistance he/she provided.
(Please include individuals who offered equipment, ideas, critiques, materials, methodology, etc.)

ATTACHMENT FOUR: Video Describing Prodigious Work

Submit three copies of a maximum 15-minute, home-production quality video recording, on a DVD that will play on any standard DVD player. Please test all DVDs before submitting. DVDs must be labeled with permanent marker only, do not affix adhesive labels to the disk itself.

You are encouraged to speak "from the heart" in your video, rather than reading directly from a script. The videotape is a chance to talk about a topic not addressed in the essays or to expand upon a point the essays touched on only briefly. Suggestions for the structure of the video:

- In the first few minutes of the video, you should briefly describe your submission summarizing why it was done, its significance, its benefit to society/social relevance and other details of your prodigious accomplishment
- Continue by describing how you became interested in this project, how it evolved and how working on it has helped you develop your talents
- Next, describe how your submission fits into the larger context of the field of study and be sure to describe the specific ideas/people/theories that influenced your work
- Conclude your video with a brief description on how you think your work/talent should be applied/highlighted.

Please label all three DVDs with your last name and first initial, category and title of prodigious work, and "2010 Davidson Fellows Application, Attachment Four"

Note: Applicants in ALL categories must submit Attachments 1 through 4 IN ADDITION to all elements described in the Prodigious Work Required Elements portion of this application.

2010 Davidson Fellows Application for Science*Davidson Fellows Nominating Forms

Three individuals who are familiar with your work must each submit a Davidson Fellows Nominating Form, which can be downloaded at www.DavidsonGifted.org/Fellows. It is preferred that one form be from a mentor or supervising scientist; one from a teacher, tutor or school administrator, and one from a professional in the field who is familiar with your work. Family members may not serve as nominators.

Forms must be submitted directly by the nominator to the Davidson Institute for Talent Development on or before the submission deadline of 5 p.m. PST on March 3, 2010. All three nominators are required. Applications with missing Nominating Forms as of the March 3, 2010 deadline will be disqualified.

Please list the name, phone and e-mail address of each individual you have asked to complete a nominating form.

#1 - Mentor or Supervising Scientist

Applicant Commitment

Davidson Fellows are asked to make a commitment to encourage and support other profoundly intelligent young people to develop their talents. If scheduling and cost were not a problem, in what ways would you be willing/able to meet this commitment? (Check all that apply.)

- ☐ I could present at a gathering of profoundly intelligent young people
- ☐ I could participate in an exhibition with other Davidson Fellows to present and explain my work to my peers, invited guests and the general public
- ☐ I would interact in online discussions with other Davidson Fellows and/or candidates
- ☐ I would be willing to describe, for publication on the Davidson Fellows website, how becoming a Davidson Fellow has positively impacted my life and/or how my work has benefited others.

2010 Davidson Fellows Application for Science

Termination and Amendment of Program The Davidson Institute reserves the right in its sole discretion to terminate this Fellows Award program at any time and for any reason and to change any or all of the rules regarding the grant or use of any scholarships. No such termination of the Award program shall apply so as to terminate a scholarship recipient's right to an Award previously granted unless such termination is required in the reasonable opinion of the Davidson Institute to comply with applicable laws or to assure the Davidson Institute that its tax exempt status will not be negatively affected or unless the continued payment of such scholarship will result in any form of tax being imposed upon the Davidson Institute or any of its affiliates, officers, directors, employees or representatives. In addition, amendments to the program may affect the terms and conditions of use of awards previously granted.

Discretion of Institute, Binding Nature of Decisions By submitting this application, we acknowledge and agree that all decisions of the Davidson Institute regarding the Award program and the grant and use of scholarships and other awards may be made by it in its sole and absolute discretion, subject only to compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. As such, all decisions of the Davidson Institute and its committees and judges shall be final and binding and are not subject to challenge by us in any manner. The number of scholarships to be awarded shall be determined by the Davidson Institute in its sole discretion.

Name and Likeness We understand that the selection and review process will be conducted on a basis that reveals information about the undersigned and our background and family. We also understand that the Davidson Institute may, without compensation to us or anyone else, publicize the Award program, our participation in the Program, information about us and our background and the results of the applicant's work and the Awards process. In that regard, we grant the Davidson Institute the right to use, for any lawful purpose related to the Davidson Institute or the Award program, in any legal form or manner, in whole or in part, in perpetuity, our names, biographical information and likenesses, the work and any information relating to it, as well as any statements made by us to the Davidson Institute. Such uses may be made in the Davidson Institute's discretion in any media or form. The Davidson Institute may take pictures, videos and audio recordings and may use any other form of media with respect to us and the matters described above.

Attestation The undersigned each attest that all of the information submitted or to be submitted to the Davidson Institute, including the information in this application is true and accurate and does not omit any information necessary to make the information provided not misleading. We hereby further certify that the work submitted here is the applicant's own and that it does not infringe upon or violate any rights of any nature of any third person.

Attendance The applicant understands that if I am named as a Davidson Fellow, I, along with at least one parent or guardian, must attend the Davidson Fellows event to be held in Washington, D.C. on September 28, 29 and 30, 2010. Attendance is a condition precedent to receipt of a scholarship or any other award or benefits.
