Expenses
(Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts, optional for others)

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
To bring together people interested in history, especially the history of the McCloud area, with the primary objective of establishing a museum. The organization is renovating the building purchased last year for use as a museum. The society is sponsoring fundraising activities to fund the renovations as well as community building activities.

Describe what was achieved in carrying out the organization's exempt purposes. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 The society has purchased a local building to be used as a museum. The society is currently in the process of raising funds to complete the renovation of the museum building. The building is now open with a reception area available for community events as renovations continue. The society is facing the need for a new roof for the building. The building now has signage and display cases of historical items donated to the society. The society continues to accept donations of items with historical significance to McCloud and the surrounding area. The society has reprinted a book of McCloud history and has copies available for sale, in addition to a few souvenirs. The museum now is open at specified times each week as well as for all community events.
