Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the explanations required by Part II, line 10; Part II, line 17a or 17b; and Part III, line 12. Also complete this part for any additional information. (See instructions).

Part III, Section A, Line 7a: The amounts shown for disqualified persons in columns a and b are what is evident in the records. There was insufficient documentation in those years to determine smaller amounts paid to the organization by members of the board of directors.

Record keeping was updated in 2008, so columns c, d & e are accurate.

In 2006 (column a), council received a $1,000 donation from a board member to fund a scholarship in honor of her child who died as an infant. This donor continues to fund this scholarship annually, but ceased to serve on the board as of July 1, 2007.

Council does not normally receive substantial contributions from disqualified persons. Amounts received from board members usually are for purchases in 3 categories: 1) baskets at the auction; 2) cost for Founders' Day Luncheon; 3) purchase of convention box lunches.

Part III, Section B, Line 12: Column b: Refund of an unused scholarship ($500)

Refund of postage paid ($259.70)

Voluntary reimbursement for box lunches provided at a council work party ($40)

Column c: A duplicate payment for new unit membership fees to WA State PTA, later refunded ($264)

Refund from WA State PTA for overpayment of membership fees ($1474)

Column d: Refund of a scholarship overpayment ($500)

Part III, Column d: Corrections made for 2009 entries. Some amounts entered in this column differ from what was reported.

-- Line 2 contained an amount already included on Line 1. Amount in this line reduced from 2009 Schedule A by $267, the dollar amount of contributions resulting from the basket auction

-- Line 6 amount adjusted down by $267 to reflect correction of Line 2

-- Lines 9 and 13 also reflects the $267 adjustment

Part III, Section C, Line 16: After making the adjustments for 2009, as noted above, the public support percentage was recalculated

Part III, Section D, Line 18: After making the adjustments for 2009, as noted above, the investment income percentage was recalculated

An amended 2009 tax form will be filed to reflect the above corrections as well as other calculation errors on Form 990EZ.

Part IV Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the descriptions required for Part I-A, line 1; Part I-B, line 4; Part I-C, line 5; and Part II-B, line 1i. Also, complete this part for any additional information.

Part II-B (addressing lines 1 a, g, & i)

During meetings and through council's newsletter, web site and e-mail messaging, issues relating to education, school funding and child welfare are presented by one or more advocacy chairs. When the Washington State PTA has taken a position for or against a ballot measure or pending legislation, members are informed of that position and why it merits their support. In the case of ballot measures, members are encouraged to vote accordingly. With legislation, members are urged to contact their government representatives.

Discussions at meetings are always open and varied. School district administrators, school board members and the education association representative all have opportunities to speak and are asked to voice their positions, which may differ from that of the PTA. Discussions and positions are limited to issues only and never involve opinions about or promotion of candidates for public office. The emphasis is to present information about current issues, promote understanding and assist members in making informed decisions or taking appropriate actions on their own. All PTA members are encouraged to support issues that will improve the education and welfare of children, however, even though the organization may take a stand for or against an issue or legislation, members are always free to form and express their own opinions and take actions or vote according to their own judgement.

(addressing 1 f)

Lake Washington PTSA Council made a $500 donation to the Lake Washington Citizens Levy & Bond Committee to support their activities.

The levy committee is responsible for running the levy and bond campaigns. This includes publicizing the election and solicitation of voter support to ensure a successful election. In non-election years, the committee works to educate the public on the importance of levy and bond dollars, how they are used to support the educational program and why they are essential for schools. In addition, the council encourages each local PTA to make an annual donation to the Levy & Bond Committee to support their work.

(addressing 1 g & h)

Members are always encouraged to contact their legislators either by phone, e-mail or written correspondence. A few will take time to make appointments and meet directly with their representatives or speak with them as they are available locally. Legislators' Town Hall meetings are advertised when known. The Lake Washington PTSA Council actively participates in and promotes Focus Day, a state-wide event organized by Washington State PTA. Attendees spend the day at the Capitol building. Activities include issue education, a rally on the Capitol steps with speeches from key PTA leaders, legislators, the governor, etc., and time for individual appointments with each person's state representatives. For Focus Day, the council joins with a neighboring council to rent busses in order to facilitate transportation to the event, eliminating the obstacles and stress of traffic congestion and parking for members who wish to attend. This year, approximately 50 people from the Lake Washington PTSA Council and the local PTA units in the Lake Washington School District attended Focus Day.

Part I, Line 19: Net assets or fund balances at beginning of year

Unable at this time to identify discrepancy. On 2009 tax form, calculations resulting in amount on Line 21 does not agree with Line 27, column B amount. It appears to be the same, but an error was made in addition of the amounts in column B, resulting in a $100 difference. On the 2009 form, amounts shown in column B on Lines 22 and 24 are correct and correspond to both the account registers and bank statements. The error must exist in reported amounts of lines 1 through 16, or in calculations done to determine those amounts. An amended form will be filed for 2009. The amount entered on this form (2010) is correct.

Part I, Line 20: Other changes in net assets or fund balances

Decrease through use in the balance of council's U.S. Postal Service Bulk Mail account from beginning to end of the year. (87)

Part II, Balance Sheets, Column (A), Lines 22 through 27

The amounts reported on Lines 22 and 24 of Column A are correct and agree with Column B on the 2009 tax form. These two amounts were added incorrectly in 2009. As a result, the amount reported in Lines 25 and 27 in 2009 was $100 less than it should have been.

Entries in Column A, Lines 25 and 27 on this (2010) tax form reflect the correct calculation and are $100 more than reported in this section, Column B, Lines 25 & 27 in 2009. (Also see note above regarding Line 19) An amended form will be filed for 2009.

| > Council's Parent Education Liaison arranged over 25 programs on a variety of parenting issues and topics, from preparing for college | |
| to internet safety and classes specifically dealing with special needs children. Programs were located in all areas of the district. Each | |
| was advertised to PTA members, special needs parents when applicable, and to the community at-large through local newspapers and | |
| flyers as well as current posting of information on the council's web site. All programs and classes were open to anyone wishing to | |
| attend. Some of the classes were capped at a maximum number by the instructor or presenter and registrations were taken on a first- | |
| come, first-served basis until full. Most presentations and classes were free of charge. Eight classes required a fee, though reduced | |
| fees were available for families of need. Council paid for class materials, books and handouts. When a fee was necessary to cover the | |
| cost of an instructor (hired as an independent contractor), it was set just high enough to cover the council's costs, as these programs | |
| are intended to be a service to the community and not produce a profit for the council. - $11,856.76, @ 3,000 attendees | |
| > Council's Special Needs Goup is coordinated by a council liaison. Meetings are held monthly. The liaison arranges for speakers to | |
| attend and educate parents about various topics of concern and to explain the services available in the schools and community for | |
| children with special needs and their families. Meeting are open to anyone who wishes to attend. Sharing and networking is | |
| encouraged. - $222.13, average attendance at a meeting is @ 50 | |
| In addition to meetings, the liaison maintains an active Yahoo group of @ 700 subscribers. This is used to share information, inform | |
| people of upcoming events and provide a means to network. The liaison also maintains a lending library of topical books for special | |
| needs that parents and staff may borrow free of charge. | |
| > Emergency Management meetings are held 3-4 times during the year. Representatives from 40 PTA units attend as well as others who | |
| are interested and the school district's risk management director. Presentations are arranged for each meeting by the council's chair | |
| and cover topics such as maintaining emergency supplies at each school, conducting mock drills and emergency logistics. | |

> Council prepares a monthly newsletter. In the 2010-2011 school year, first issues were mailed to @ 350 PTA leaders, school board members, principals and administrators. A transition was made during the year to electronic distribution through council's e-mail data-base, enabling distribution to @ 600. A total of 10 issues distributed from September to June. Contents include information about PTA activities, leadership news, calendar of events, school district news, articles on current or timely topics and Washington State PTA information. Local PTA units are encourage to share their activities as well. - $87

> Council maintains a web site that is used to post current information and resource materials for the 40 local PTA/PTSA units. The site provides links to the school district, Washington State PTA, National PTA and some local PTA/PTSA units. It is a valuable tool for council in serving the needs of the local units and can be accessed by anyone.

> E-mail distribution lists are maintained by the council for communicating with local PTA units' leadership about upcoming events or breaking news. Smaller lists are also used for various offices or committees such as membership, treasurers, etc., so that pertinent information can be communicated. - @ 400 PTA leaders, some on multiple lists.

> In order to best serve the needs of local PTA leaders and members, council periodically conducts surveys. This year's survey focused on electronic communication preferences and was conducted online using Zoomerang. - $19.00, @ 100 responders

> A training workshop is offered by the council for new local PTA/PTSA unit officers and board members. It includes basic leadership training, operational guidelines, legal obligations and restrictions for a non-profit organization and requirements for PTA units in general, as well as specific to Washington State and the local school district. Classes are offered for positions such as president, treasurer, secretary, newsletter editors, membership chairs and others with specific job requirements and tasks. A packet of leadership information is provided to each person. Other handouts are distributed in classes. This is the primary leadership instruction for local unit leaders, serving @ 250 representatives from 40 PTA units. - $393.56

> A workshop is held each spring for school principals and local PTA unit leaders to facilitate development of common goals, working relationships and partnerships between school administrators and PTA leadership teams. - $332.50, @ 250 from 40 schools

> Two nominating committee workshops are held to educate members from the 40 local units about the responsibilities and procedures of a nominating committee. - $95, @ 50 attend

> Each fall, representatives from council attend the Washington State PTA Legislative Assembly. A selection of classes is offered, ranging from how to be an advocate to issue education and strategic planning. Delegates also debate and prioritize issues for the upcoming legislative session. Registration, hotel & meals for 2 people, 2 days - $724.48

> Focus Day in Olympia is planned by Washington State PTA. Council promotes participation in this event. The day includes issue education, a rally on the steps of the Capitol and time to meet with legislators. To facilitate attendance, council partners with a neighboring PTSA council to rent busses for the day at a per capita fee. This year @ 50 attended from Lake Washington. - $312

> Council presidents, and/or other officers, attend the Washington State PTA Convention where they receive leadership training specific to their roles as council officers. (Council is a district-wide PTA that mentors and serves the local PTA units.) Other training and educational classes are available over the 3-day event. They also attend general sessions with various speakers and vote during the sessions on the business of the state organization. Council budgets and pays for registration fees and hotel accommodations. In May, 2011, 3 people represented council at the convention. - $1393.20

> On both Friday and Saturday during the Washington State PTA Convention, the council offers pre-ordered box lunches for any person attending from this area. Each person pays for their own lunches, or has the cost picked up by their local PTA unit. This is not a fund-raising event; the cost per person is based on the caterer's charges. Lunches are delivered to the convention site each day at the designated time and place. Facilitating lunches in this manner allows everyone the time (while eating) to participate in informational sessions with the Regional Director and council leaders. - $836.82, 73 lunches

> Prior to both Legislative Assembly and Convention, orientation sessions are held by council. The emphasis is on enabling first-time delegates to maximize training, networking and participation opportunities at these state-wide events. @ 45 people attended

> The Washington State Leadership Conference is open to all PTA leaders and offers advanced training for more experienced leaders. In 2010, 3 people from Lake WA Council attended. Due to their roles on the regional leadership team, there was no cost to the council.

> Two regional workshops are held each year for additional leadership classes or other classes of interest to parents and educators. In 2010-2011, 21 council leaders attended these 2 workshops. - $90

> 10 Council board members attended the PTA & the Law class offered regionally by Washington State PTA. This class provides training regarding the legal aspects of a non-profit organization and is offered annually. - $45

Line 30: Community & Volunteer Involvement and Recognition . Total of 10,398

> Lake Washington PTSA Council plans and sponsors the annual Founders' Day Luncheon. This event celebrates the accomplishments of PTA and recognizes outstanding volunteers. Awards include those for PTA/volunteer service, special service at the council level of PTA, outstanding educators, outstanding child advocates, and community members and/or organizations whose work or volunteer effort contributes to the welfare of children and youth in the community. The event also honors winners of the Reflections Art Competition who present entries or have visual works on display. Attendance is from all district schools and PTAs, central administration, school board and community guests. - $8,301.56, @ 260 people

> Throughout the year, the council executive committee members give small gifts or cards of thanks to people who have done an outstanding job. At the close of the year, outgoing board members are given a small thank-you gift. Incoming board members also receive a gift as a token of appreciation for their willingness to serve. In 2011, they received PTA planners and flowers. Other cards or small gifts are given to those who assist council throughout the year, such as the district office custodian and the district receptionist who manages the building use, calendar and room access for council. It is also customary for the council to make a donation from its general fund to the scholarship fund in honor of the district administration that works closely with council, attends council meetings, and gives their time to ensure the success of PTA throughout the district. - $1,519.53

> As an incentive to bring new leaders to the council level, a chance for a drawing was offered for every new name received by the nominating committee. The prize was a 2-day stay in Leavenworth. - $77

> Council makes an annual donation to support the work of the Levy & Bond Committee. - $500

Line 31: Support to Local Units and Local Unit Leadership . Total of $1,129

> Through monthly council meetings, an average of 60 unit officers from the 40 PTA units are kept up to date on all aspects of PTA and issues of concern to PTA. Meetings are structured to include input from the school district, school board and education association. Outside organizations that serve children are sometimes invited to share their programs. Most meetings include a featured presentation. Topics range from district information to child and youth development. - $296.15

> Meetings are a vital part of council's role of mentoring local PTA units. Important information is disseminated. Time is allocated for networking and problem-solving. This fulfills the role of council to build awareness and strengthen leadership.

> Council publishes a leadership directory each fall that is distributed to council and unit leaders. It includes regional, state and national PTA directory listings, resource pages, school district resource information and listings of local PTA leaders. It serves as a central resource for unit leaders and aids in networking across the district. - $316.80

> Primarily through e-mail, but sometimes by phone, council continuously communicates with local unit leaders as important information is made available or needs are discovered.

> Council's web site is increasingly being used as a resource for local unit leaders. It contains resource material, current news and announcements, meeting notices and more. Past newsletters are archived. Links are provided to the Washington State PTA, National PTA, school district, local PTA units and others, providing easy access to current events, news and legislative issues concerning children. Addresses have been reserved for the council to launch on Facebook and Twitter next year. As the next generation of PTA leaders emerge, electronic access and communication is becoming the norm. - $16.37

> A new PTA Council was formed next door in the Riverview School District. PTA units in this district are part of Washington State PTA Region 2, which also includes Lake Washington PTSA Council. As is customary when a new PTA or council is formed, existing units have a 'baby shower' for the new unit, by giving donations of money to help with start-up costs, such as filing for incorporation or tax-exempt status. LW PTSA Council donated $500 to this new council.
