Creating safety and stability for vulnerable people and building community are the heart and soul of AHA's mission. We greet people who come to our programs by name, welcoming them and referring to them as residents or guests. We want them to know that we will listen to them and we are willing to share their story. Taking the time to listen to the struggles of their lives is a crucial part of our ministry, and is the basis for this "ministry of presence" we share with the people we serve. It is the depth of the relationships we have with our residents that enables community to happen in our programs, we believe with Thomas Merton that "in the end, it is the reality of personal relationships that saves everything."

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

Established in 1979, Archdiocesan Housing Authority (AHA), dba Catholic Housing Services of Western Washington, develops, owns and manages affordable housing programs for low-income families and individuals. We provide supportive services for people who have experienced homelessness, low income seniors, farm worker families, and those who have special physical and mental needs. We own or manage more than 2,000 housing units at 49 properties, throughout Western Washington. AHA is a mission driven faith based agency that works in partnership with local, state and federal government agencies, public funders, private lenders, community agencies, and private contributions to achieve our goals.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	In accordance with the donor instructions to fund certain resident support services positions from the services endowment, the spending policy calculates the amount of money annually necessary to fund one half of the cost of the positions required by the original grant. AHA is required to match the amount spent from the services endowment to ensure full funding for these positions. AHA has used a portion of the grant from the CCF to fund the match. Earnings to date plus the match have been sufficient to fully fund the positions. The Development Working Capital endowment restricts the funds to be used only for predevelopment costs associated with housing programs being newly developed or significantly renovated. Funds are advanced as temporary project financing, and are returned to the working capital fund when a project is permanently financed. Earnings on the working capital endowment are to be used only for predevelopment costs.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	AHA is exempt from federal income taxes as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The exemptions under Section 501(c)(3) are granted according to the United States Catholic Conference group ruling by the Internal Revenue Service. AHA is included under the ruling by virtue of its listing in the Official Catholic Directory by the Archdiocese of Seattle. Real property used in providing housing for the elderly, handicapped and low-income families is exempt from real estate taxes for 2011. AHA's income tax filings are subject to examination by various taxing authorities. AHA's open examination periods are from 2007 to 2010. AHA follows the provisions of uncertain tax positions as addressed in FASB Accounting Standards Codification Subtopic 740-10, Income Taxes. AHA believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements.
