Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule E, Line 3 - Racially Nondiscriminatory Policy Publicized		The organization operates six international schools in the People's Republic of China. Under China law, all students must be holders of foreign passports, which means the students must be selected based on nationality. However, within the foreign community, students are accepted regardless of race, color and national origin. The student body is composed of persons from over 20 nations with a wide range of races, colors, and national and ethnic origins. We have a corporate non-discrimination policy by resolution of our governing boards, and we include the required non-discrimination notice on our websites, brochures and other materials concerning criteria for admission and scholarships. In light of the fact that our schools recruit only from the international community, it is not feasible for us to use print or broadcast media to solicit students or to publicize our admissions policies. However, our records reflect wide racial diversity in our student bodies.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used in Foreign Country		The Organization monitors the use of granted funds through on-site visits (which are conducted with every grant recipient), required financial reports, noting accomplishments, and the requirement that each recipient undergo a financial audit. The Organization requires all grant recipients to agree to, and sign, a detailed grant agreement, prior to granting funds. Potential grant recipients, and their representatives, must establish a commitment to integrity and morality before any funds will be granted. The Organization typically provides oversight, via the executive leadership team, to any grant recipient, as a way to encourage and foster effective use of funds and to assist in developing leaders in the Faith-Based Education arena.
