Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

The organization monitors and enforces any conflicts that may arise with planning and strategies of research programs and business growth. All employees have access to the handbook to review procedures if such a conflict arises.

Employees will not be allowed to solicit, obtain, accept, or retain any personal benefit from any supplier, vendor, college student or any individual or organization doing or seeking business with the college. As used here, personal benefit means a gift or gratuity, favor, service or compensation in any form, discount, special treatment or anything of monetary value. The following may serve as exceptions, but employees should consult with supervisory personnel when circumstances are difficult or doubtful as to the propriety:

A) Purchase of business - meeting meals; and

B) Consumable gift offered to an entire work group during the holiday season where rejection would damage the spirit in which the gifts were offered.

The presidents compensation shall be determined by the board of trustees.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process for Officers & Key Employees

Compensation for offices is the policy of the board of trustees to compensate employees for performing work in a higher position in order to establish a system by which employees may receive pay comparable to the job factors that determine pay differentiation for each class of work in the college structure. The principle for temporary additional compensation for performing higher-level job responsibilities due to operation necessity is based on such considerations as:

- 1) The employee's ability and qualification to perform the higher-level job responsibilities
- 2) Whether the employee would be required to perform routine work (ineligible) or a significant range of the higher job responsibilities
- 3) Whether the higher-level job responsibilities are in direct line and whether the job scope of the lower position; and,
- 4) The length of time necessary for an employee to perform at the high job level
