Multnomah Holiness Association was formed in 1926. Several years prior miscellaneous parcels of real property were donated to the organization and were then held for some years prior to being sold. In 1981, we received a review by IRS and a determination letter saying that with these contributions we would continue to file as a organization exempt under 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi). Upon the sale of the real estate, we invested the sales proceeds into designated investment accounts which have been held to produce income to allow us to develop our camp ground facilities and continue to provide a location for church camps, retreats, etc. We have also donated to other 501(c)(3) organizations and churches each year based upon the income earned from these investments.
