being upheld upon examination with relevant tax authorities, as defined by the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Renown Health Foundation believes that it is compliant with all IRS tax regulations and as of June 30, 2011 has not recorded a tax liability for a tax uncertainty. Renown Health Foundation would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.

Under normal circumstances, Renown Health Foundation is no longer subject to federal tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2008.

National Association of Children's Hospitals and Related Institutions

(NACHRI). This alliance of hospitals ensures children have the specialized care they need and deserve. It also guarantees that funds raised in the community stay in the community to provide care for local children.

Over the last 25 years, CMN has raised more than $8 million to benefit

Renown Children's Hospital. Funds from the Foundation also support

Renown Institute for Cancer, Renown Institute for Heart and Vascular

Health and Renown Institute for Neurosciences.

The Foundation also has partnerships/memberships with the following non-profit organizations: Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Susan

G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, Solace Tree, Community Services

Agency, Northern Nevada Children's Cancer Foundation, Ronald McDonald

House Charities, Children's Cabinet, Women and Children's Center of the Sierra Community Foundation of Western Nevada, Association of program in fiscal year 2010.

Additionally, Renown Health Foundation supports classes designed especially for women such as early pregnancy education, breastfeeding support groups, infant care classes, and gestational diabetes.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2011, Renown Health Foundation along with its parent, Renown Health and its subsidiaries, provided over $139 million in benefit to the community (using community benefit numbers gathered by the Nevada Hospital Association using Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 8b: There was no committee during the year that had the broad authority to act on behalf of the board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: The Form 990 is prepared by the organization's tax department with support from a certified tax preparer. The form is reviewed by the organization's Chief Accounting Officer and the Chief Financial Officer prior to the final Form 990 being sent to the board. The IRS Form 990, as filed with the IRS, is sent to each voting member of the Renown Health Board prior to filing. Along with the forms, the Renown Health board is provided with a narrative that explains the various parts of the Form and their content.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: On an annual basis at or prior to the first regular meeting following the election of new board members, the members of the Renown Health Foundation Board are given an Annual Disclosure Statement. They are expected to perform a reasonable investigation into their business, financial, family or significant personal relationships to disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest. If, in connection with a proposed transaction or arrangement involving a Renown Health entity, a board member discovers that an actual or possible conflict of interest has arisen that was not disclosed on the Annual Statement, then the board member must disclose the existence and nature of his or her financial interests to the remaining directors that are considering the proposed transaction or arrangement in a timely manner. If a board member discloses an actual or possible conflict of interest, the board member shall leave the board or committee meeting while the remaining board members discuss the financial interest. The remaining board members shall vote upon and decide whether a conflict of interest actually exists.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: Renown Health's executive compensation is set by the Renown Health Compensation Committee. Members of this committee review and approve various employee pay practices and parameters, as well as compensation for the CEO and certain executives.

The Compensation Committee is comprised of independent members of the Renown Health Board of Directors unrelated to and not subject to the control or undue influence of executives, with no material financial interest in transactions of the Company or any other perceived or actual conflicts of interest. The Compensation Committee members are appointed by the Chairman of the Renown Health Board of Directors.

The Compensation Committee meets approximately five times per year.

Meeting minutes are kept documenting the deliberations and decisions regarding the compensation arrangements.

Total cash compensation for the organization's executives are targeted at competitive compensation levels, relative to market surveys of comparable healthcare organizations, based upon the level of performance required to achieve the targeted compensation levels. Base compensation and total cash compensation is reviewed at a minimum of every two years in comparison to the surveys for comparable businesses and responsibilities and adjusted as to maintain equity with the survey information.
