Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
FIN 48		The Financial Accounting Standards Board issued new guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. The Fund adopted this new guidance for the year ended June 30, 201. Management evaluated the Fund's tax position and concluded that the Fund had maintained its tax exempt status and had taken no uncertain tax positions that required adjustment to the financial statements. Therefore, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, part I, line 2		The Basic fund makes grants for scholarships for students to attend private institutions. The fund awards these scholarships to families who qualify for assistance under the guidelines set for the free or reduced price federal lunch program. The student submits an application and the financial documentation from a governmental agency. The student must meet the academic and admissions requirements of their chosen school. Applicants are awarded scholarships based on financial need. Once an applicant has been awarded a scholarship the school verifies to the BASIC Fund that the student has been accepted and is attending the institution. Scholarship checks are then sent directly to the schools. The institutions are all schools known to the BASIC Fund and we generally have numerous scholarship attendees at each of these inner city schools. We visit any schools that are new to our organization, and we regularly visit schools with the highest concentration of students. We endeavor to visit each of the smaller schools regularly but don't have a formal procedure in this regard.

Form 990 Review Process	Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Executive President and Treasurer, Mr J William Morris III, reviewed in detail the Form 990 and provided a complete copy of the Form 990 to the Board prior to filing the return with the Internal Revenue Service The audit committee will review the Form 990 subsequent to filing form 990 with the Internal Revenue Service

Conflict of Interest	Part VI, Section B, line 12c	EVP J. William Morris III and Executive Director Rachel Elginsmith regularly monitor the activities of the organization and its board to ensure there is no conflict of interest. Our Conflicts of Interest Policy (the "Policy") covers all Directors, Officers, and members of board committees with board delegated powers, and family members of such persons. In connection with any actual or potential conflict of interest, any person covered under the policy must disclose the existence of his or her financial interest and all material facts to the director(s) and officer(s) delegated by the board, currently the Executive Director and Treasurer, to consider the transaction or arrangement. Should the potential conflict warrant review by the board, the designated officer(s) alert the Chairman and other board committee chairs, to consider the transaction and determine whether there is a potential conflict. An investigation and special meeting may be called to aid in the determination, if necessary. A conflict must not exist within the organization at any time. If it is determined that a transaction will result in a conflict of interest the board must take steps to ensure that the conflict of interest does not arise. Should an already existing conflict of interest be brought to the attention of the board, necessary steps to eliminate the conflict must be taken. If there is reasonable cause to believe that an individual has failed to disclose a potential conflict, the board shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action. In the case of a transaction that could be characterized as an excess benefit to a Director or voting officer, special procedures ("Sanctions") are undertaken prior to such a transaction. These Sanctions include board approval of such transaction, and investigations and data gathering is to happen prior to such a vote. The vote occurs without the participation of the Director or Officer in question, or their family members. Any approved transactions are duly recorded.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Process to determine officer compensation		In 2009, the board made up of independent members approved the use of a search company to fill the newly created Executive Director role. The search firm provided comparable compensation data for similarly qualified persons in functionally comparable positions at similarly situated organizations. The salary range determined for the Executive Director position and the deliberations and decision were documented contemporaneously. The documentation included the list of the members present at the time, how the members voted and a description of the comparable data relied upon by the board, etc. as required by the intermediate sanctions regulations. There are no other compensated officers or key employees of the organization.
