	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Valley Christian School's (VCS) Board of Directors, in accordance with its board policy, reviews the performance of the Superintendent annually. This review is conducted by the Executive Committee. The compensation for the Superintendent is based primarily on the published scale from Christian Schools International. This scale takes into consideration school size, educational experience, level of education and geographical location. The board may also, at its discretion, award additional compensation as it deems necessary to attract and retain an individual in the position of Superintendent. The compensation is defined in a contract that has been created and approved by the Executive Committee of the VCS Board of Directors. The contract is signed by the Superintendent, the Board Secretary and the Board President. The Superintendents' contract is discussed at the executive board meetings and documented in the minutes. The Superintendent reviews the performance of the Director of Business Operations annually. The compensation is determined based on education, experience and geographical location. The compensation is defined in a contract that is signed by the Superintendent and the Director of Business Operations.
