What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
Create access to quality, safe, consistent early care experiences for all infants and toddlers in Ohio through advocacy, program initiatives, and community education

Describe what was achieved in carrying out the organization's exempt purposes. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28 Early Care and Learning (ECAL) and a group of partners including another child serving agency, Action for Children, and 5 child care centers formed the initiative Caring Communities Birth to 3. This project is working to transform early care and learning philosophy and practice for children ages six weeks to age three. The partners had 5 planning meetings, offered 7 teacher education trainings for 30 teachers, including a year end presentation to the community about progress to date, and made 7-15 visits to each of the five partner child care centers for technical assistance and on-going evaluation. The second year of CC B-3 has been successfully completed with all centers having made transformational changes in their programs by grouping infants and toddlers into family style, mixed aged groups rather than same age, and with teacher training attendance averaging at least 25 care teachers who receive state certified credit for participation. Several centers have raised their quality state rating, and no center has decreased its rating. (Grants $ 2,000) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here		28a	16,034
29 ECAL representatives participated in state-wide meetings for the planning and coordination of early learning and care services for young children, including serving on a group charged with revising child care licensing rules and regulations. 30 ECAL has been preparing to launch a new website (by Jan 1, 2012) to inform the community about its work as well as the achievements and progress of the Caring Communities Birth to 3 initiative. (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here		30a	1,900
