SchD_P05_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	Virtually all endowment funds are either for the support of scholarships or the University's Leadership Center
SchD_P10_S00_L02	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	Generally accepted accounting principles prescribes recognition thresholds and measurement attributes for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Tax benefits will be recognized only if a tax position is more-likely-than-not sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized will be the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the more-likely-than-not test, no tax benefit will be recorded. Management has concluded that they are unaware of any tax benefits or liabilities to be recognized at July 31, 2011 or 2010. The University would recognize interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax expense, respectively. The University has no amounts accrued for interest or penalties for the years ended July 31, 2011 and 2010. The University is no longer subject to examination by taxing authorities for years before 2008. The University does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next 12 months.

F990_P06_S0A_L04	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 4	During the reporting year two changes of significance were made to the University's Code of Regulations and Bylaws. First, the power to authorize the formation, dissolution, sale and/or merger of incorporated and/or unincorporated entities in furtherance of the University's exempt purposes, while an implied power previously, was added as an explicit power of the Board of Trustees. Second, the responsibilities of the Committee on Governance (formerly the Chairmen's Nominating Committee) were expanded to include various actions to improve the effectiveness and performance of the Board, including performing assessments of the overall Board and training and development of new Trustees. These new responsibilities are in addition to existing ones providing for assessments of individual Trustee performance and the nomination of candidates for Trustee positions.

F990_P06_S0B_L11a	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11a	Upon completion of the Form 990 and all supporting schedules (the "return") by the Director of Accounting, the return was first reviewed by the Chief Financial Officer and the University President, with consultation of tax experts where considered necessary. The return was then provided to the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees and the Finance Committee for their review. Questions arising from this review were addressed as appropriate, with any necessary changes made to the 990. A copy of the final return, reflecting all changes arising from the review process described above, was provided to the full Board of Trustees via e-mail approximately one week prior to filing of the return. In sharing Schedule B with the Board of Trustees, two Trustees who made donations during the year requested that their contributions be listed as "Anonymous" in the copy of Schedule B provided to the Board - the reason for the "No" response to this line item.

F990_P06_S0B_L12c	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Each year a copy of the University's Employee Ethics (Conflict of Interest) Policy is provided to each Trustee, the President and other officers of the University, along with a questionnaire related to the policy. Responses to the questionnaire, which are summarized for review by the president of the university, will identify any potential conflicts of interest. Should business come before the board or committee thereof that presents a potential conflict, the affected board member would be asked to abstain from any board action on that business.

F990_P06_S0B_L15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Reviews, as prepared by an independent compensation consulting firm (the "consultants"), were conducted in fiscal year 2008-2009 on all University officers, including the president, via a thorough examination of external documented pay data (published surveys and 990 filings) for comparable positions at peer institutions (as mutually agreed upon by Franklin University and the consultants). Compensation levels were reviewed for market competitiveness and reasonableness and were compared for all components of pay including cash compensation, benefits and perquisites. In preparation for such reviews, the consultants interviewed a number of University officers and members of the Board of Trustees to gain perspective on the University's work environment mission, pay philosophies and pay program effectiveness. The results included individual market reports as well as an aggregate perspective. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees approved the resulting reviews and compensation levels of the president and his direct reports and proposed the adoption of a related executive compensation philosophy which was ultimately approved in January of 2010 by the full board. The compensation reviews covered all senior employees (earning over $100,000), including individuals not reporting directly to the president. These reviews, although conducted in the previous fiscal year, were fully vetted by the Compensation Committee and full board in fiscal year 2009-2010. All such actions were reflected in the minutes of both the Compensation Committee and the Board of Trustees. Any compensation changes made were relative to the independent market review.
