01. Form 990 governing body review (Part VI, line 11)

There is a written procedure for the review of the 990. It is presented to the Executive Committee when it is ready. Any questions of the Executive Committee Members are forwarded to the accountant for response. The 990 is then presented to the full Board at the next meeting. If there are questions from the full Board, they are forwarded to the accountant. A special board meeting is called to discuss the responses. If there are no further questions the accountant is notified that it has been reviewed and is ready for submission. If there are further questions, the Executive Director will invite the accountant to a special meeting to discuss the 990.

02. Conflict of interest policy compliance (Part VI, line 12c)

There is a formal written policy in place for board members and a statement that they are required to sign annually. Any duality of interest or possible conflict of interest on the part of any governing board member should be disclosed to the other members of the board and made a matter of record through an annual procedure and when the interest becomes a matter of board action. Any governing board member having a duality of interest or possible conflict of interest on any matter should not vote or use his personal influence on the matter, and he should not be counted in determining the quorum for the meeting, even where permitted by law. The minutes of the meeting should reflect that a disclosure was made, the abstention from voting, and the quorum situation.

03. CEO, executive director, top management comp (Part VI, line 15a)

There is a written procedure for determining compensation. The Board Chairman and another member of the Executive Committee conduct a performance review of the Executive Director in May before the budget process begins. The results are then shared with the Executive
