Who is the Ideal Kemper Scholars Candidate?

Like the Foundation's founder, the Trustees of the James S. Kemper Foundation believe that a liberal arts education is the best preparation for life and a career, including careers in organizational leadership and business. Too often, students prematurely select a vocational major thinking it the best road to a professional career. Others study the liberal arts but believe that having a position of leadership in a corporation or not-for-profit organization is not feasible for them or not worthwhile. The Kemper Scholars Program encourages students to major in the liberal arts, while providing them experiential education, mentoring, contacts, and training to position them for careers helping to lead organizations.

Kemper Scholars Profile

Academic Achievement and Potential. While a 3.00 grade point average is the minimum requirement, most Kemper Scholars will have a 3.50 or better, both in high school and in college. Students who achieve less than a semester or cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 for two semesters will be dropped from the program.

Academic Major. Scholars may major in any liberal arts field or in business-related fields like business or accounting, but students from other professionally-oriented majors such as nursing, social work, or education will not be selected. In any case, successful candidates will be broadly interested and intellectually curious. Students in majors requiring that they use their summers for research or major-related internships should not apply. Kemper Scholars Program internships are intended to be in organizational management broadly. The Kemper Scholars Program does not support internships related to developing specific career skills (e.g., psychological counseling, acting, instrumental performance).

Leadership in School and Community. Kemper Scholars will demonstrate a capacity for leadership, both in high school and in college. This capacity is best demonstrated through past involvements.

Commitment to Citizenship and Service. Service is an underlying principle of leadership. Prospective candidates must display a commitment to helping others and serving society. A record of community service activity in high school or college is important.

Interest in Organizational Leadership and Business. The program aims to prepare broadly-educated leaders for corporate and not-for-profit organizations. Because all Kemper Scholars will have internship placements in administrative areas of both not-for-profit and for-profit organizations, they must have a genuine interest in exploring such a career. The Kemper

Scholars Program will not be a good choice for students who are convinced that they want careers in fields like laboratory science, acting, or teaching.

Intellectual Curiosity and Independence. The program will be most satisfying to students who are eager to learn new things and can relate their experiences to academic preparation or career aspirations.

Unusual Maturity, Openness and Flexibility. In the summer, Kemper Scholars will live and work as independent adults. They will need to relate well to adults in the workplace, to adjust to unexpected events, and to make wise decisions about life away from work. Kemper Scholars will become part of a very diverse group and must be open to and accepting of fellow Kemper Scholars with differences in politics, religion, ethnicity, culture, interests, and sexual orientation.

Need and Opportunity. For many, the Kemper Scholars Program has provided the first chance to work alongside adult professionals, to live independently away from home, and to test out a professional career. For such students the program often has the greatest value and makes the greatest impact. While they are not the primary criteria, personal background and financial need may be considered in the selection process.

Diversity. The Kemper Foundation seeks to recruit Scholars from diverse academic majors and economic, ethnic and geographical backgrounds. We seek also to achieve a group balanced between male and female participants.

Parental Support. Kemper Scholars must have parental support for their participation and parental willingness to have students travel to Chicago for meetings and for the summer internship. Prospective Kemper Scholars are responsible to ensure before applying that their parent(s) or guardian(s) will be comfortable with their living and working in Chicago for the summer. The Chicago summer experience is an indispensable part of the Kemper Scholars Program. Parents or guardians should understand that the Kemper Scholars Program is designed so that staff members deal directly with students and not parents or guardians in matters related to the program except in unusual circumstances.

Social Security Number. Applicants must possess a valid United States Government Social Security number which can be shared with Foundation staff. Like all other personal information, the number will be kept secure and confidential.
