The Gates Cambridge Trust makes awards to scholars of outstanding academic merit and leadership potential from any country in the world (except the UK) who are committed to serving their communities and who gain admission to the University of Cambridge.

Awards are widely advertised on the Trust website and in the University of Cambridge literature. Candidates apply to the University of Cambridge through its Board of Graduate Studies.

Candidates are short-listed by the relevant academic departments in Cambridge. Short-listed candidates are then interviewed by panels, selected by the Trust, academic assessors in the USA, and for other countries by panels in the relevant countries, or by telephone or video-link to panels in Cambridge. The selection panels look for qualities of academic and leadership potential and commitment to the community. Successful candidates, selected by the interview process, are offered scholarships for periods relating to the length of the course which they plan to undertake at Cambridge

Expenses for year: $57k

Part VI - Line 7a - The University of Cambridge appoints all Trustees apart from two nominated by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Part VI Line 11a - F990 was approved by Trustees at their meeting on 2 December 2011. Moreover, the F990 was independently reviewed by legal counsel prior to consideration by Trustees.

Part VI, Line 12b and c: Trustees, officers and executive employees receive a copy of the Trust's conflict of interest policy on an annual basis. Such individuals are required to certify each year that they have read and understand the Trust's conflict of interest policy, as well as to make certain disclosures on the annual conflict questionnaire. The completed questionnaires are maintained by the Trust for reference throughout the year at Trustee/Committee meetings and otherwise as needed. Trustees, officers and executive employees are also required to promptly disclose all material facts of any actual or potential conflict of interest that arises during their tenure. In addition, Trustees and officers are asked to disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest prior to all meetings of the Board of Trustees or committees.

Part VI, Line 15a and b: Compensation arrangements for the Provost, the Treasurer, and certain of the Trust's senior employees are approved in advance by the Board of Trustees based upon compensation recommendations made by the Trust's Remuneration Committee. In making initial compensation determinations, the Remuneration Committee obtains appropriate and reliable comparability data regarding similar positions at similarly situated organisations with similarly sized annual operating budgets. Comparability data generally includes remuneration paid by the University of Cambridge for senior academic appointments and information concerning compensation levels paid by similar organisations for comparable positions. Final compensation determinations are made by the Board of Trustees.
In making final compensation determinations, the Board of Trustees contemporaneously documents the basis for the compensation determinations in its meeting minutes, including the comparability data relied on. No member of the Board of Trustees or the Remuneration Committee who has an actual or potential conflict of interest with respect to any compensation determination is permitted to participate in and or to be present for any vote regarding the compensation determination.

Part VI Line 19 - Documents, including the Trust Deed, Conflict of Interest Policy and Financial Statements, are available on
