Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used in Foreign Country		For SIAs award programs, applicants are chosen at all levels using the same judging criteria and based upon information provided by the applicant. The awards are given to support the recipients' work or education. Follow up is done on the planned program outcomes to measure if goals or objectives of the program are being met. Grants are awarded to SIA clubs to start or continue projects in their communities that improve the lives of women and girls. Clubs request grants through an application process and grants are reviewed by a task force of members of the SIA Program council. This task force determines which projects are funded and the recommended funding levels. Before receiving funds, clubs sign a contract stating that they will undertake the approved projects and that any changes need to be approved by SIA. They are also responsible for filing six month or 12 month reports on the progress of their projects.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b	Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Compensation Review and Approval Process for Officers and Key Employees	SIA pays its executive director fair market value for his/her services within the context of fiscal responsibility to the organization. Comparable compensation and benefit packages will be researched by the executive director or an outside source at the discretion of the board on an annual basis. The board will review benefits and adjustments to the range annually, using this research as a guide. A written performance evaluation of the executive director is prepared annually after seeking input from the board at a board meeting. A self evaluation prepared by the executive director is considered in the written performance evaluation. The executive compensation committee (the president, president-elect and the immediate past president) determines the increase in salary and meets with the executive director to discuss the evaluation and salary increase.
