Lawyers and Leaders In Training LLIT is designed to inform low-income and ethnically diverse secondary school students about the many professional opportunities available to members of the legal profession and motivate them to pursue a legal career. This program is conducted in partnership with other national organizations such as the National Association of Women Judges, which coordinates the Color of Justice Program in Anchorage, AK Just the Beginning Foundation, which sponsors law camps around the country for interested students and the Marshall Brennan Constitutional Literacy Project. The LLIT reached over 443 students across the country in 2011. Undergraduate students benefit from the CLEO College Scholars Program which is designed to prepare them to be successful law school applicants. During their freshman year, students in six regions of the country are invited to participate in a one-day seminar designed to inform them about the types of classes and activities that will enhance their law school application. As sophomores, students are introduced to inductive and deductive reasoning and the benefits of enrolling in logic, philosophy, and other classes that challenge them to become more analytical. Juniors are given a three-hour law school admission test LSAT and suggestions for improving their scores. Form 990 Part VI	15b	FJE relies on the Compensation Committee of the ABA Board to review compensation information of comparable entities and performance of other officer and key employees. When other officer and key employee positions become vacant the compensation is reviewed by the Association's Executive Director and Human Resources department based on the recommendation of the Compensation Committee. The ABA Board must approve the final compensation of the Executive Director of the ABA. This process occurs every year and was last performed in calendar year 2010. The Association President and the President-Elect receive 100,000 and 50,000 respectively in compensation for their position. There has been a long-standing practice and written agreement that the compensation for the President and President-Elect is paid directly to their respective law firms.
