PROGRAM SERVICES	PART III, QUESTIONS 4A AND 4B	The mission of Goodwill Industries of Kansas, Inc. is to provide education, training, employment and personal growth opportunities for people with disabilities and other barriers to employment. We accomplish our mission through six major programs: 1) Organizational Employment/Day Services: Last year more than 100 people with developmental disabilities and other vocational barriers found employment in our contracts division working on packaging and light manufacturing contracts. Goodwill has with area businesses. Many of the clients received their first paycheck through our program and learned about the joy of working and earning a wage. 2) Adult and Young Adult Case Management: Case managers act as advocates of people with developmental disabilities. Case managers were charged with protecting the health and safety needs of 110 individuals last year. Many of the clients in the program come from families that take advantage of them or are unable to care for them properly. 3) Education and Training: The education program is for adults over the age of 16 who want to improve their educational levels. Specially trained tutors work one-on-one with illiterate adults to improve their skills. As they learn, some move onto the next level of students who did not graduate from high school and want to obtain their KS high school diplomas by passing the GED test. About 900 adults came to our program to improve their literacy skills and work toward achieving their GED. Participants are guided through the program by qualified education specialists. Last year 159 participants passed their GED exam and received their high school diploma. The program is offered to anyone in the community for a one time fee of $50 which includes books and assessments. 4) Supported Employment: Working with the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation, Goodwill provides pre-employment skills testing for people ready to re-enter the workforce. 5) Economic and Employment Supports (EES): The Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services sent nearly 90 individuals to Goodwill to help transition them from welfare to work. Participants received assistance with job interviews, resume writing and finding employment. 6) Other/Goodwill Retail stores: Our 17 retail stores provide work opportunities for people with severe vocational/employment barriers. Nearly 50 percent (175 employees) of our retail employees have a severe employment barrier. We have hired women from area homeless shelters as well as from agencies addressing the needs of domestic abuse. Many of our retail employees lack basic reading and writing skills making them unemployable in our increasingly high tech society. All fulltime employees are eligible for health, vacation and sick leave benefits. Goodwill pays 80% of a single health insurance policy and 100% of dental insurance.
