Statement A

The Austin Film Society is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes and for lessening the burdens of government, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Without limiting the foregoing, these purposes may be accomplished through educating the public as to the virtue and rewards of viewing classic, international and rarely-seen films and multimedia productions; educating the public as to the techniques of creating and distributing such films; and supporting creative filmmaking by providing equipment, facilities, grants, scholarships, fiscal sponsorship and the like.

Schedule O (Form 990), Supplemental Information to Form 990 provides feedback, offering suggestions for improvement. Phone appointments are available for out-of-town applicants.

Applications are processed and reviewed for completeness. They are then split for preliminary review with a mix of narrative, documentary, animation, and experimental applications going to each evaluator. The top-scoring applications (roughly one-third) are reviewed at full panel session in Austin. Panelists make funding decisions regarding the final recipients and the amount awarded.

PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Eligibility and restrictions

- * Application must be made by the creative author of the final work.
- * Applicant must have resided in Texas for at least 1 year prior to the application date.
- * All genres of film or video are given equal consideration. AFS is unable to consider multimedia projects.
- * Projects must be "independent productions", meaning under the artistic, budgetary and editorial control of the individual owning copyright. No consideration will be given to industrial or promotional pieces or "works-for-hire".
- * Application must be for the production, post-production or distribution stages. No consideration will be given for applications requesting pre-production or development funds.
- * AFS staff and Board Members and TFPF interns are ineligible to apply.

CRITERIA FOR REVIEW

Essential factors considered by panelists include:

- * The quality of the proposed work based on the description, realistic budget, and supporting materials
- * The likelihood that the work will be completed.
- * The applicant's demonstrated ability and creativity as seen in the representational work (film video, or script) submitted.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants are asked to submit:

- * Application form and budget
- * Project description (1-3 pages)
- * Project timeline (1 page)
- * Optional support material (no more than five pages)
- * Proof of TX residency
- * Video sample
- * Treatment or script (optional)

Applications must be mailed to the Austin Film Society by the postmark deadline. Applications can also be submitted online.
