THE MARTIN SALOMON MORTON AND GUSTEL SCHREIBER MORTON FOUNDATION

Information and Guidelines as of January 1, 2011

I. Background

The Martin Salomon Morton and Gustel Schreiber Morton Foundation is a modest charitable foundation established by the late Gustel S. Morton, who died in 1996. The Foundation bears Mrs. Morton's name and that of her husband, who died in 1976.

Mr. Morton was born in 1898 in Frankfort-am-Main, Germany and Mrs. Morton, in 1902, in Brussels, Belgium. They were married in 1925 and emigrated to the United States in 1926, first settling in New York City and later in Cambridge, Massachusetts before establishing their long-term home in Belmont, Massachusetts. A leather merchant, Mr. Morton traveled widely throughout the world and served as an advisor to the Federal Office of Price Administration concerning the leather industry during World War II. Mr. Morton spoke at least four languages and was a quiet, studious and cultured man who valued both his European roots and the opportunities and blessings of his adopted country. Mrs. Morton was an industrious and spirited woman who worked for several large retail stores in New York City before the Mortons moved to the Boston area. During the 1930s she worked diligently with her husband to help bring more than 36 Europeans - particularly German nationals - to the United States as the Nazi tyranny became manifest. At one time they had undertaken to guarantee the economic integrity of so many emigres that the United States government refused to permit the Mortons to be responsible for any additional emigration applicants.

Always intellectually curious, Mrs. Morton discovered her special artistic talents in the early 1940s and then attended the School of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. There she experimented with water colors, oils and particularly sculpture in a variety of media and went on to countless creative pursuits until her final illnesses in the mid 1990s.

Having no children of their own, the Mortons actively supported a broad range of civic and charitable causes, particularly those relating to the welfare of children and the arts.

II. Purposes

Although the Foundation is vested with a broad charitable mandate, at Mrs. Morton's request, it focuses primarily on (i) education, (ii) medical science and services, (iii) children, (iv) religious pluralism and (v) the fine arts.

The Foundation may not do anything that is prohibited for a charitable organization under Federal or Massachusetts law. Specifically, no part of the Foundation's resources or activities may benefit a private individual or involve carrying on propaganda, influencing legislation or participating in political campaigns.

III. Grants

The Foundation awards grants solely to entities which are qualified as charitable organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code. Grants typically range in size between $1,000 and $3,000 and rarely exceed $5,000; however, under special circumstances involving unusual, long term projects, the Foundation may entertain applications for multi-year support. Preference is given to specific, focused programs and needs rather than general funding, and particular interest is extended to applications for matching or challenge grants.

IV. Policies

- A. In its operations and grant award practices, the Foundation is non-commercial, non-sectarian and non-partisan.
- B. The Foundation's name may not be used by a grant recipient without its express, written consent other than in the listing of its support in a manner generally consistent with the Foundation's charitable giving. Under no circumstances may a reference be made to the Foundation which is inconsistent with its charitable mission.
- C. In any matter involving the cooperation of the Foundation with other entities similarly qualified as charitable organizations under the United States Internal Revenue Code, no person or entity may act in a manner which purports to bind the Foundation to any financial or non-financial commitment or position without the Foundation's express, prior written authorization.
- D. In accepting any grant, the awardee commits to the use of the funds for the represented purpose and is expected to complete and file with the Foundation a brief report outlining the specific uses and results of the grant. The Foundation provides the form of this report when the grant distribution is made.
- E. The Foundation reserves the right to modify its policies and procedures from time to time without prior notice, all as its Trustees determine.

V. Application Procedures

Grant applications must be made in writing and sent to the Foundation's office:

Walter Angoff, Trustee
The Martin Salomon Morton and
Gustel Schreiber Morton Foundation
P.O. Box 245
New London, NH 03257

All applications must be accompanied by a copy of the applicant's 501(c)(3) qualification letter.

VI. Deadlines

Applications are received from October of each year through May of the following year. Grant decisions are generally made by the end of July, and grant distributions are made by the end of September.
