Masonicare provides management support for its affiliates who provide geriatric care services, hospital services, management services, fund raising services and investment management services. This is done with a view of furthering the long-range goals and traditional objectives and values of providing for the needs of an aging population. COMMUNITY BENEFIT1. Masonicare provides free education and services to individuals and families throughout Connecticut. The Lunch and Learn Program is designed to provide seniors and others with education on health and wellness. Speakers are typically medical professionals from throughout the Masonicare continuum. The program reached 1,738 people at senior centers and public libraries in the towns of Brookfield, Cheshire, Cromwell, Fairfield, Hamden, Monroe, Newtown, North Haven, Southbury, Wallingford and West Hartford 2. Funded by The Masonic Charity Foundation of Connecticut, Masonic Community Services is a statewide outreach program available to all Connecticut residents. It offers information and guidance on a variety of programs and services including ConnPACE (Connecticut's pharmaceutical program), Medicare, Medicaid (Title 19) and Medicare Part D, Benefits eligibility, Caregiver assistance programs, State and federal programs and housing options. Representatives from Masonicare Community Services are available to provide assistance over the phone or in the home. In the year ending September 2011, Masonicare Community Services performed approximately 100 home visits 3. Another valuable resource to the community is the Masonicare HelpLine. In addition to providing information about Masonicare's continuum of care, the HelpLine offers assistance in locating and utilizing services, agencies and programs in Connecticut that are beneficial to seniors. In 2011, the Masonicare Helpline received 5,857 inquiries 4. Masonicare again partnered with the United Way for its annual Day of Caring, in which volunteers from local companies come together to help non-profit organizations in their communities. In September, employees in Wallingford cleaned the kitchen and performed maintenance on the grounds at Master's Manna, a local food pantry and resource center 5. Due to Hurricane Irene many homes in the communities surrounding our affiliate Masonicare at Newtown were without power and water. Community members were welcomed onto the campus to use showers and bathrooms 6. Masonicare also held blood pressure screenings and senior health fairs throughout the state, and made its facilities available to many community organizations including the Commission on Aging, the Area Agency on Aging and the Alzheimer's Association 7. Masonicare conducted a Community Health Needs Assessment during FY 2011. Data was collected from 175 total respondents. The result did not determine any novel needs but instead affirmed the need for continuation and augmentation of our current programs. Masonicare is currently meeting many of the needs that arose from the data through the availability of Masonicare Community Services and the Masonicare Helpline. In summary, as a non-profit 501(c)3 organization, Masonicare is proud to provide free education programs and services to individuals and families throughout Connecticut. For the year ended Sep 30, 2011, Masonicare and all of its affiliates across our continuum donated 3,008 hours of their time to benefit the community through home visits and educational programs. These donated staff hours had a monetary value of $99,190 and touched 9,085 members of the community
