Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	The purpose of the organization's endowment fund is to grow the corpus of the fund with the unrestricted earnings from the invested endowment funds used to support the mission of the organization.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	The Foundation has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a tax-exempt organization described in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and is exempt from federal and state taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and Chapter 220.13 of the Florida Statutes, respectively. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the Foundation's management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Foundation and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Foundation has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation has analyzed the tax positions and has concluded that as of September 30, 2011, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Foundation is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Foundation believes is it no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2007.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Executive and Physician Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board is charged with determining, in advance, all compensation issues for all executive positions including the President & CEO, the CFO and all Vice Presidents of the organization. Only independent and "disinterested" persons may serve as members of the Committee and no member may be employed by the organization or any of its affiliates. Additionally, no physician on the medical staff of the organization may serve as a member of the Committee nor may any member have any business or financial relationships with the organization, either directly or indirectly through family members. The Committee engages an independent nationally recognized human resources management consulting firm which specializes in executive and employee compensation in the health care industry. This firm, among other things: a. Conducts a competitive executive total cash compensation analysis relative to comparable healthcare organizations nationally, b. Conducts a competitive executive benefits analysis relative to comparable healthcare organizations, c. Conducts a competitive executive total compensation analysis relative to comparable healthcare organizations, d. Assists the Committee in ensuring compliance with regulatory requirements, e. Provides guidance and counsel to the Committee and Board in matters relating to executive compensation, f. Participates in Committee meetings and presents its findings and recommendations to the committee and to the Board. In determining compensation, the Committee relies on the independent, reliable market data presented by the consulting firm to set all compensation levels and the consulting firm's opinion as to the reasonableness of total compensation to be paid the executives of the organization. The Committee fully documents the basis for all determinations and records, at a minimum: 1) the terms of the compensation agreement and the date on which it was approved, 2) the members of the Committee who were present during the discussion and those who voted on it, 3) the comparability data used and its source, and 4) the basis for the ultimate decision. In fulfilling its responsibility, the Committee has full authority to consult with outside counsel to the organization or Committee engaged counsel, regarding the legality of the compensation and other legal issues which may be relevant to the Committee's responsibilities.
