Each year, each Covered Person shall complete a Conflict of Interest Declaration Form concerning the name(s) of any organization, institution or other entity with whom the Covered Person (including such person's parent, spouse, sibling, son or daughter, or domestic partner) has a significant ownership or investment interest in, has a compensation arrangement with, or has a relationship with as a director, trustee, officer, employee or consultant, and shall sign a statement affirming that such Covered Person:

- a. Has provided complete and accurate information on the Disclosure Form as described in the preceding paragraph,
- b. Has received a copy of this Conflict of Interest Policy,
- c. Has read and understands the Policy,
- d. Has agreed to comply with the Policy, and
- e. Understands that the Corporation is a charitable organization and that, in order to maintain its federal tax exemption, the Corporation must engage primarily in activities that accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

SCHEDULE I: PART I, LINE 2: PROCEDURES FOR MONITORING THE USE OF GRANT FUNDS

DC Public Education Fund plays a critical role in working with DCPS to ensure that privately funded initiatives and projects are managed with the accountability and oversight necessary to maximize impact on student achievement. As the fiduciary for contributions provided to benefit DCPS, DC Public Education Fund monitors the use of grant funds closely and provides status updates to both private donors and DCPS.

DC Public Education Fund adds significant value in its fiduciary role by conducting due diligence, fostering partnerships, supporting implementation, and facilitating communication and evaluation. In monitoring expenditures, DC Public Education Fund provides project cash flow management and third-party contract administration, where appropriate. Additionally, DC Public Education Fund ensures that grant restrictions and grant agreement terms are met through the monitoring of grant funds, tracking progress toward milestones and project outcomes, and assuming responsibility for reporting and evaluation functions.

DC Public Education Fund maintains tight controls over its disbursement process to ensure funds are used effectively and in accordance with grant terms. Disbursements processed for payments require sign off from the relevant DCPS program administrator and DC Public Education Fund Executive Director. A disbursement form (along with all related paperwork) is sent to our external accountants, Lane & Company, to enter into the accounting system and cut a check, then forwarded to DC Public Education Fund Treasurer to sign checks. The Treasurer sends signed checks and paperwork to DC Public Education Fund management. Checks are mailed to vendors along with a photocopy of the invoice and paperwork is returned to Lane & Company for filing.

In addition to its tight front end controls, DC Public Education Fund management meets monthly with Lane & Company to review financial reports, including data on revenues/expenses by program and coding for all recent revenues/expenses.

Finally, DC Public Education Fund management communicates frequently with DCPS to receive progress reports on supported programs; these meetings often include reports on expenses and grant balances that are provided by Lane & Company.

SCHEDULE I, PART II, LINE 1h: PURPOSE OF GRANT OR ASSISTANCE

In FY11, DC Public Education Fund raised funds and facilitated public-private partnerships to support a select set of high-impact programs in DCPS. These programs primarily fell under three reform areas that we believe have the greatest potential to raise student achievement and improve student outcomes in the District: Human Capital, Data and Accountability, and Compelling and Effective Schools.

Human Capital: Teacher quality is the most important lever for improving student achievement and has been a central priority of DCPS leadership. DC Public Education fund is supporting several projects to ensure that DCPS attracts, develops, rewards, and retains the most talented teachers in the country.

Data and Accountability: Having access to timely, accurate, and actionable information helps drive improvements throughout the school system and hold all employees accountable for doing their jobs well. Teachers use student achievement data to adjust their lessons. Principals use data to fairly and consistently evaluate teachers. And central office administrators use data to manage resources to schools. DC Public Education Fund is supporting initiatives to make good information available- to help educators, parents, and the public take advantage of it.

Compelling Schools: Students deserve compelling and effective places to learn, with a consistent foundation of challenging academics, strong support for their social and emotional needs, and a variety of programs and instructional themes that are both relevant and rigorous. And parents should be able to select from a broad portfolio of options to find the best placement for their child. DC Public Education Fund is investing in several initiatives that are revolutionizing DCPS' options.

PAGE 6, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 15: COMPENSATION

The board meets to review the President's performance and compensation on an annual basis.

The president prepares and, at the first board meeting of the fiscal year, submits her annual performance goals. The President presents progress against her goals on a quarterly basis at each board meeting and reviews a performance dashboard in greater depth with the Strategy and Compensation Committee between board meetings. At the conclusion of the fiscal year the President performs a self-assessment and the Strategy and Compensation Committee performs a performance review, which includes input from employees and other board members.

The Strategy and Compensation Committee then submits to the board (in executive session) the President's performance review and a recommendation for any adjustments to compensation. The board holds a discussion on performance and compensation and votes on future compensation based on the financial position of the organization, the overall evaluation results, and comparability data pulled from Professionals for Non-Profits annual survey. An overall performance assessment is then delivered by the board chair to the president, along with notice of any compensation adjustment.

The President follows a similar deliberation process for evaluating and adjusting compensation for her direct reports, with input and sign-off by the Strategy and Compensation Committee.

Schedule I, Part II, line 1g: DESCRIPTION OF NON-CASH ASSISTANCE

As the fiscal sponsor for contributions provided to benefit DCPS, DC Public Education Fund provides in-kind services and materials to support a range of select, high-impact initiatives in DCPS. The non-cash assistance that DC Public Education Fund provides to DCPS takes a variety of forms, including but not limited to classroom resources, professional development, and external consultants.

In fiscal year 2011, DC Public Education Fund most frequently provided non-cash assistance so as to provide appropriate oversight and accountability, ensuring that funds were expended according to donors' wishes. In a fairly typical case, we managed a grant to provide additional classroom resources and out-of-school experiences to benefit student learning at an individual DCPS school. Rather than deposit funds directly into the school's budget and therefore lose oversight of the spending process, the school sent us disbursement requests, which we facilitated. We then reported back to the donor at the end of the grant term. This arrangement worked well for all parties -- the donor was comforted knowing that the grant funds were spent according to grant terms, the school was happy to receive extra resources to benefit student learning, and we were pleased to facilitate this arrangement.

Ultimately, DC Public Education Fund must ensure accountability for grant funds and support programs that are having a positive impact on student achievement while minimizing the administrative burden on DCPS staff. Providing non-cash assistance is the best way to achieve these goals.

Schedule H: Description of Event # 1 and # 2

Great teachers are the key to student success, yet their important work often goes unrecognized. At A Standing Ovation for DC Teachers, the city of Washington came together to salute the men and women of DC Public Schools who earned the honor of being rated Highly Effective. Proceeds from A Standing Ovation for DC Teachers benefited DC Public Education Fund. The Education Fund is dedicated to ensuring that there is a high quality teacher in every classroom, in every school.
