Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

The Foundation makes annual grants for graduate-level research in academic fields related to caves and karst. The grants are awarded based solely on the merits of the grant requests submitted by the researchers. Grant requests are reviewed by an independent committee of academic researchers in cave and karst-related fields. Grants are normally not awarded directly to the recipient, but are sent to their university and the university administers the grant for the researcher. Grant recipients are required to publish the results of their research in a public document, which can be the Foundation's quarterly "CRF Newsletter".
