the year along with an evaluation of staff provided by the CEO.

The CEO has a contract which renews yearly for a two year period as long as both parties agree. Salary increases and performance bonuses are discussed between the CEO, President and Chairman and made on an annual basis. Outside information from the American Society of Association Executives, Missouri Society of Association Executives, the National Corn Growers Association and others is used to provide prospective on salaries of other comparable positions and to provide guidance to fulfill the MCGA/MCMC obligations under the contract to the CEO.

After this initial meeting, the entire board of directors is given a report in executive session from that meeting. A general discussion is held between the board and CEO.
