032211 01-24-11

Form 990 until the board formally approves such filing at the February board meeting.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: RTC has a conflict of interest policy and form that each board member is required to complete annually. To implement this policy, board members submit annual reports on the conflict of interst forms at the February board meeting and, if not previously disclosed, will make disclosure before any relevant board or committee action. These reports will be reviewed by the Board or an appointed Committee of the Board, which will attempt to resolve any actual or potential conflict(s) and, in the absence of resolution, refer the matter to the Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: Compensation for the President is set by the Executive Committee of RTC's Board of Directors based on an annual performance review, comparison to other environmental nonprofit CEO compensation as reported in their 990's, and in the context of RTC's overall operating budget. Documentation of these procedures and resulting changes in compensation are prepared by the Board Chair and forwarded to Human Resources for inclusion in the President's personnel file.

Compensation for key employees is set by the President. New hires' compensation is determined by benchmarking similar positions in other environmental nonprofit organizations of similar scope and size. Depending on the recruiting technique, this analysis may be prepared by a personnel recruiting agency or collected by RTC's human resources department.

Compensation is adjusted annually based on an annual performance review conducted by the President and in context with the salary pool available in
