Psychological & Medical Services - PTV served approximately 290 clients during the tax year. PTV provides psychological evaluation, individual & family therapy with the goal of increasing our clients' functional status; reducing their level of depression, anxiety and PTSD; enhance functioning of families of torture survivors, including reuniting with family members after long separation when survivors have fled their native country. As necessary, PTV refers clients to our pro-bono psychiatrists for evaluation and follow-up, with continued consultation & collaboration with the psychiatrist in the care of the client. We have asylum readiness groups, which help PTV's clients understand and prepare for the asylum process. We have attorneys speak to the group to explain what will happen, what they can expect to go through, and answer any questions they may have. PTV has The Healing Club, which is an informal multi-cultural gathering of PTV clients, their families and PTV staff for cultural and recreational activities. It provides the opportunity to share their culture through food, music, stories and build a sense of community and social support and to share their personal challenges and achievements. PTV's founder is a physician at Venice Family Clinic, which provides free medical care to all PTV's clients in need of medical services after the initial medical evaluation

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 78,096 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

PTV sends in a significant amount of documentation & statistics from our ongoing work in semi-annual and annual reports to our major grant makers - Office of Refugee Resettlement (U.S. govt) and the United Nations. This in turn helps them in establishing guidelines for the work of torture treatment, and is helpful to the consortium of other non-profit organizations that provide similar services to survivors of torture, as PTV does
