Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The organization's primary exempt purpose is to provide services to women coming from prison to help them with cognitive thinking skills and behavioral modification, ultimately resulting in positive lifestyle from the inside out. The programs are designed to educate, expose, empower, and impact women so as to move them from homelessness to permanent housing.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

During the year, the 2000 Roses Foundation operated training and development programs for its clients and others. The objective of these programs was to provide the participants with the knowledge and skills needed to be productive in society. The program served 1,251 people during the year.

Job training programs were conducted to teach skills necessary for employment in the wholesale and/or retail industries. Shipping and receiving training and point of sale was also part of the resale training.

There were several Entrepreneurial Skills classes taught to the program's participants as well as others from the community, including jewelry and candle making, sewing classes, landscaping, and property maintenance classes.

The 2000 Roses Foundation collaborated in an on-the-job training program focused upon preparing participants for full or part-time employment in the construction industry. During this reporting period our clients were trained through their involvement in the renovation project, an on-site in the 10th Street Historical District. Under the supervision of DRD Construction Company.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

During the year, the the 2000 Roses Foundation organized and facilitated community cleanups for the 10th Street Historical District. Other organizations participating in these efforts included the City of Dallas, Preservation Dallas, local businesses and churches in the community.

During the year, the 2000 Roses Foundation continued to work the food pantry and clothes closet to assist families in the community with food, fresh produce, toiletries and clothing.

During the year the Directors of the organization continued their emphasis on improving rehabilitation programs being offered to women who are being released from prison and treatment centers.

During this year, the organization continued it's alliance with the Delancey Street Foundation of San Francisco, California. This relationship made additional training resources and support services available to the organization. The Delancey Street Foundation closely monitors the organization's activities in Dallas.
