What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
G R A C E works with more than 50 community-based organizations located in all eight provinces of Kenya. In its capacity-building approach, G R A C E provides training in financial management, program quality assurance, human resource management, procurement, sub-grant management, staff communication, human resource management, vehicle management and good governance. In addition, G R A C E provides technical skills to help them implement successful and sustainable projects in their communities. G R A C E has over the years put in place structures and systems for financial management, program quality assurance, human resource management, procurement, sub grants management and governance. In this regard, comprehensive manuals have been developed and are being applied in areas that include Human Resources, Partnership Development, Procurement, Sub Grants Management and Financial Management. G R A C E has a unique approach to development work that trains local organizations to design an

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 Programs and Accomplishments Early Childhood Development Program provides orphans and vulnerable children in remote areas of Kenya with access to Early Childhood Development (ECD) services: education, food, psychosocial support, basic medical care, child protection and HIV prevention. G R A C E also helps the caregivers find economic opportunities and gain access to HIV prevention, care and treatment services. Results: Over the past three years, 2,176 orphans and vulnerable children between the ages of 3 and 6 were successfully served by this program and a total of 44,306 community members (adults and children) received at least one care service during the program period. Economic Strengthening teaches vulnerable groups (including caregivers of AIDS orphans) to take charge of their finances through establishing locally-owned and managed Savings and Lending Clubs. G R A C E assists these groups to set up and expand community micro-credit services that benefit vulnerable members by pr
