Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III ☒

The New Hampshire Charitable Foundation is a statewide community foundation. Its purpose is to help the people of New Hampshire make their communities better places to live. To accomplish this purpose, the Foundation (See Schedule O for continuation) Encourages individuals, businesses and organizations to dedicate assets for charitable purposes of all kinds in New Hampshire, with a particular emphasis on the creation of long term funds. The Foundation now manages more than 1,675 different charitable funds. Uses these charitable funds to provide grants and loans to meet community needs in a wide range of areas, including education, health care, social services, community development, the arts, and the environment. Exercises leadership in the efforts of New Hampshire residents and public and private institutions to address emerging needs and issues in New Hampshire communities.

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	The Foundation is a community foundation that provides grant and loan assistance to nonprofit organizations and to students. The intended use of the various endowment funds is based on donor instructions at the time each fund was established. Purposes vary and include education, environment, health, arts & humanities, community building and human services.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	The Foundation is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements. Management has evaluated the Foundation's tax positions and concluded that the Foundation has maintained its tax-exempt status, does not have any significant unrelated business income and has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements. With few exceptions, the Foundation is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. Federal or State tax authorities for years before 2008.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The process for determining compensation for the Foundation's president includes an annual review of the president's performance by the board. The governance/compensation committee of the board reviews comparability data including survey information provided by an independent compensation consultant. The committee presents a recommendation to the board. The board discusses the president's performance as well as the compensation recommendation. After deliberation, there is a board vote. The chair of the governance/compensation committee prepares contemporaneous documentation of the discussion and vote. The members of the board as well as the governance/compensation committee are independent. The process for determining compensation for senior management of the Foundation includes an annual performance review by the president. The president reviews comparability data including survey information provided by an independent compensation consultant and makes compensation decisions within the compensation program and structure as approved by the governance/compensation committee and the board. These salaries are reported to the board. The president prepares contemporaneous documentation of the discussion.
