Please note that this capital gains report is not the final determinant of any tax liabilities that you may have with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"). Your custodian will send on an annual basis a 1099 form ("1099") to both you and the IRS as your official tax document. This 1099 is the document that the IRS will review. Unfortunately, the cost bases used on this capital gains report may not match those included on the 1099. You should review both this capital gains report as well as the 1099 carefully and contact us immediately about any inconsistencies. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions about this issue.
