Part VI line 11:

Form 990, including attachments, is prepared by an outside paid preparer. It is then presented to the President and members of the Executive Board. It is reviewed and signed off by the chairperson of the Board of Directors. At the next scheduled business meeting, an announcement is made and written into the Minutes that Form 990 has been filed and is available in the club's office, upon request, for a review by a club's member in good standing.

Part VI line 19:

All governing documents, policies and financial statements are available during the business hours for review by members. All records are kept in the club's office and, upon a freedom of information request, are available for public viewing. Form 990 is filed with the IRS and, if requested, a copy is made available to the parent organization in Chicago, IL.

Part XII, line 2(c)

The Constitution and the By-Laws mandate annual election of a three member Board of Directors. The directors oversee that the club is managed properly and honestly. The members meet quarterly to examine the financial health of the club and the operations and subsequently issue a report. They are present at Executive Board meetings and discuss all financial and economic matters relating to the club. They arrange meetings between themselves or together with the officers to assess and evaluate the financial and material aspects of the club. The chairperson has the right to demand information for himself and for the directors. The right encompasses all matters concerning the club's operations. They also have the authority to request an independent audit, if deemed necessary.
