1. IANDS provides reliable information on near-death experiences (NDEs) to caregivers, experiencers, and the public by:

• hosting a comprehensive websites at www.iands.org and www.near-death.com

• publication of the quarterly newsletter Vital Signs for members

• maintaining a Speaker's Bureau to schedule speakers at IANDS groups

• working with media around the world

• sponsoring periodic North American conferences

• developing and presenting continuing education programs

990-EZ, Line 28 (Statement of Program Service Accomplishments, continued)

- producing a wide variety of educational materials and offering these for Continuing Education credits

- maintaining a comprehensive on-line survey which integrates with research software easily

2. IANDS encourages interest in research and professional applications through:

- publication of the peer-reviewed academic quarterly Journal of Near-Death Studies

- management of a program of small grants to encourage scholarly research

- creation of an NDE Research Fund

- sponsoring periodic North American conferences

- publication of an indexed bibliography to the periodical literature on near-death and near-death like experiences

- maintenance of an archive for these referenced articles.

3. IANDS facilitates support for near-death experiencers. Near-death and similar experiences can raise deeply troubling questions for many experiencers. Aftereffects of the NDE can be disturbing to the experiencers as well as to their families, friends, and caregivers.

To meet these special needs, IANDS helps to organize support and interest groups (Friends of IANDS) across North America and in countries elsewhere in the world. The Board of Directors of IANDS has periodic informal public gatherings at various locations. IANDS holds an annual retreat for near-death experiencers.
