Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors
Midnight Run, Inc.
Dobbs Ferry, NY

I have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Midnight Run, Inc. (a New York not-for-profit organization) as of December 31, 2011, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Midnight Run, Inc.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Midnight Run, Inc. as of December 31, 2010, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America

Midnight Run, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
Year Ended December 31, 2011

1. Businesses and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

Midnight Run, Inc. (the "Corporation") was incorporated under the laws of New York State to be a charitable organization under Internal Revenue Service code 501(C)(3). The Corporation is a consortium of more than one hundred churches, synagogues and schools in the New York metropolitan area. The Corporation delivers food, blankets and personal care items to the homeless poor.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Funds received have not been restricted. The decisions made to use the funds are under the direction of the Board of Directors.

Depreciation and Amortization

Delivery equipment is depreciated using the straight-line method over five years as provided by the Internal Revenue Code.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Corporation considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

At various times throughout the year, the Corporation has maintained a balance in the operating account in excess of federally insured limits. The Corporation believes it mitigates its risk by banking with two major financial institutions.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through August 6, 2012, the date the financial statements were available for issuance. All subsequent events that require recognition as of December 31, 2011 have been incorporated in the financial statements.
