Organizations requesting funds from Black Diamond Foundation, Inc. submit a "Community Grant Request" that states the amount of their request, what the funds will be used for and how the use of funds will benefit Citrus County residents. In addition, the requesting organization provides us with a copy of their last years financial statement, current years budget and copy of last tax return filed, if they are required to file Form 990 or Form 990EZ. Most of the organizations that receive grants from Black Diamond Foundation make an annual appeal for funds. When they appear before our Board of Directors in a subsequent year after receiving a grant, they are asked to give a report on how our funds were used and if the program is being continued, etc.

Many of our Board of Directors and members of the Black Diamond Ranch community serve as volunteers for the 501(c)(3) organizations listed on Schedule L - Part II - Line 1. We are continually updated on the needs in Citrus County through our contacts within the tax exempt community and the effectiveness of the programs that we support.
