990-EZ Part I, 28: The library is committed to youth programs. We have varied programs throughout the year. Our most successful programs this past year have included Make Your Own Gingerbread House at the holidays, monthly family movie nights, craft programs including needle felting and origami, and storytelling performers and musicians during the summer months.

990-EZ Part I, 29: "Tell Me About It," an oral history project at the Stephentown Memorial Library, was completed in November 2011. This project focused on eight local seniors selected to tell their life stories. They worked with a duo of professional storytellers to craft their tales and the result was printed in a book that was shared with the community. Local teenagers partnered with the seniors to produce the book, along with recordings of the stories.
