Statement Attached to Form 990 EZ Part III, Line 28

We continue striving to educate the public, our member-participants and ourselves about new ways of thinking about solutions to many of our state's most pressing problems. The Caucus works to find experts in many different fields who are in unique positions to shed light on the issues we try to address. In 2011, a total of 57 different speakers participated in 44 presentations of the Caucus. Each presentation was summarized and emailed to approximately 2,800 individual participants. Readers were invited to respond to questions with email. Their responses were summarized and shared with participants through regular email correspondence and also are permanently posted on the Civic Caucus website.
