Facts And Circumstances Test

Explanation
Fund raising for the Bishop Gorman Development Corporation is done in association with Bishop Gorman High School. Three fund raising events are held each school year to help support tuition assistance and the general operating budget. In October we held the 26th Annual Bishop Gorman Golf Classic at Badlands Golf Course. The 30th Annual Knight of the Gael was on March 22, 2012 honoring the Engelstad Family Foundation and our annual winetasting event, Passport, was June 1st at the M Resort. The guests at these events are alumni, parents and friends of Bishop Gorman. In addition to events the Advancement Office also solicits annual gifts throughout the year for our annual giving program, Gael Force, as well as, capital campaign - pledges specifically restricted to Bishop Gorman Development Corporation's capital projects. These solicitations are made through direct mail, e-blasts, personal phone calls and visits. A significant factor temporarily contributing to the decrease in the calculated percentage of public support has been the impact of large contributions by several donors who originally provided a significant portion of the capital campaign that enabled the high school's construction but have also recently committed substantial donations and pledges necessary to fund significant expansion of the school facilities. Upon receipt and reporting of these significant contributions, the calculation will revert to one evidencing broader public support.
